

Online Course Evaluation Data, 2008

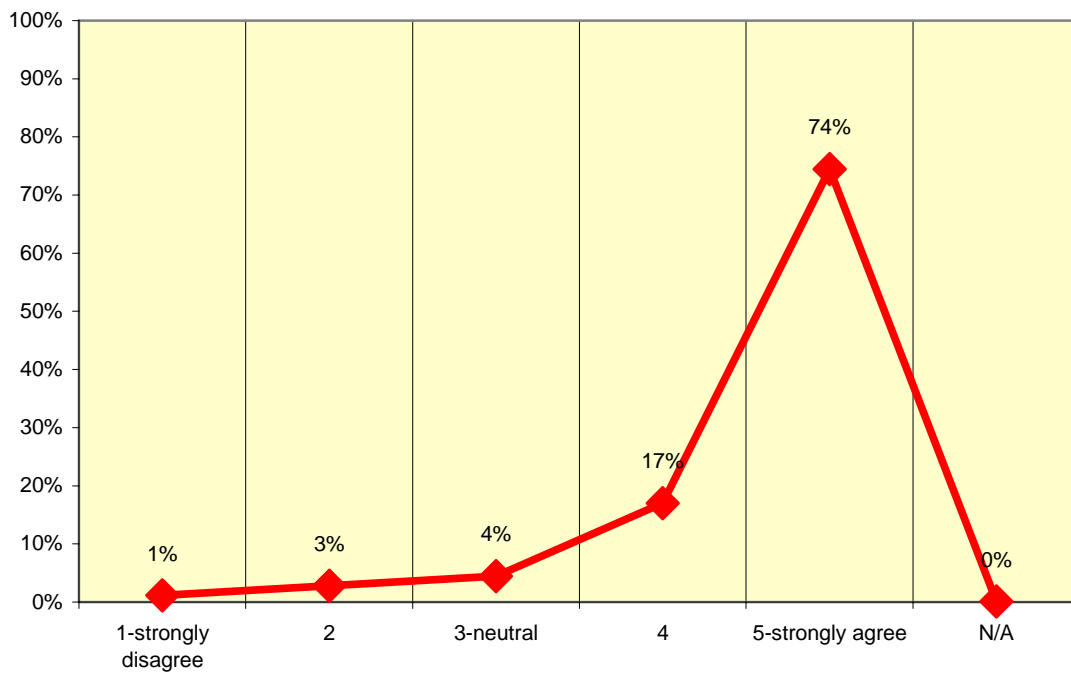

These charts present averages from course evaluations submitted by students enrolled in ARTS&SCI 120D, 121D, and 122D during Winter, Spring, and Autumn quarters 2008. Data from 11 of 13 sections taught by various instructors during this period is included. Demographic and other questions that do not pertain to course content or quality of the instructional experience are not included here, but are shown in the individual section reports.

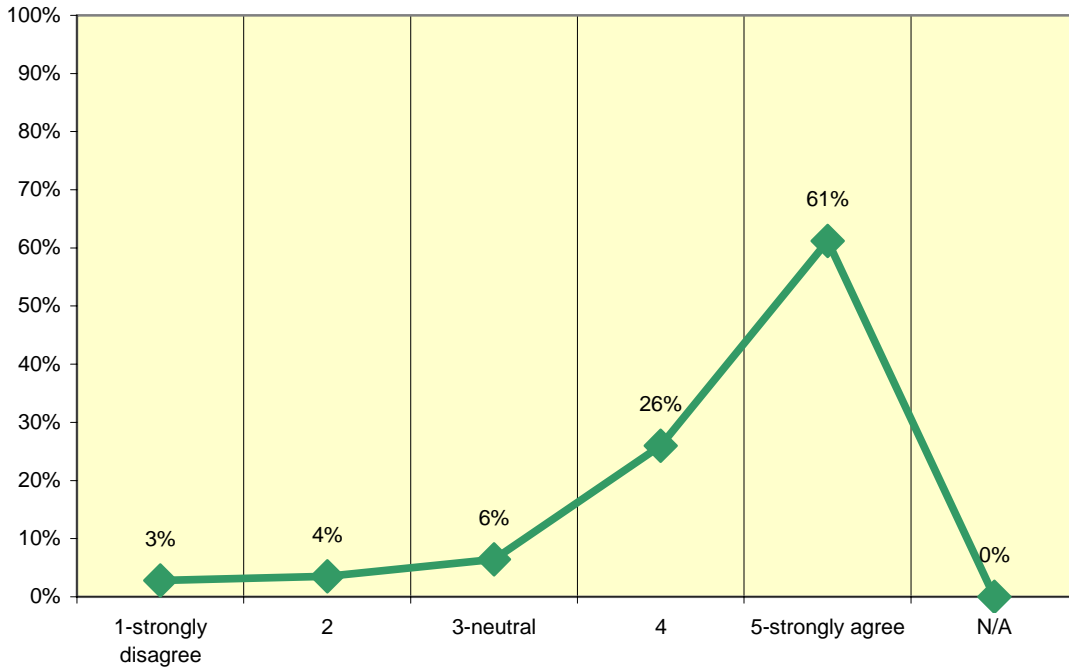

Q5. Access to technology was convenient to complete the course.

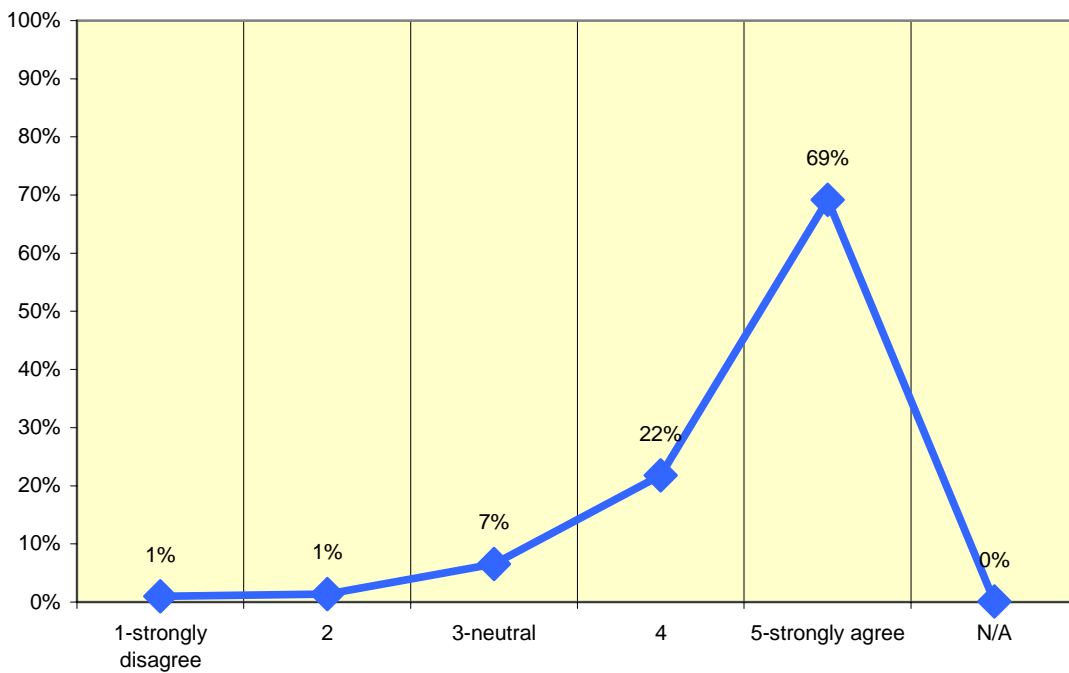

Q6. The subject matter of the course was well organized.

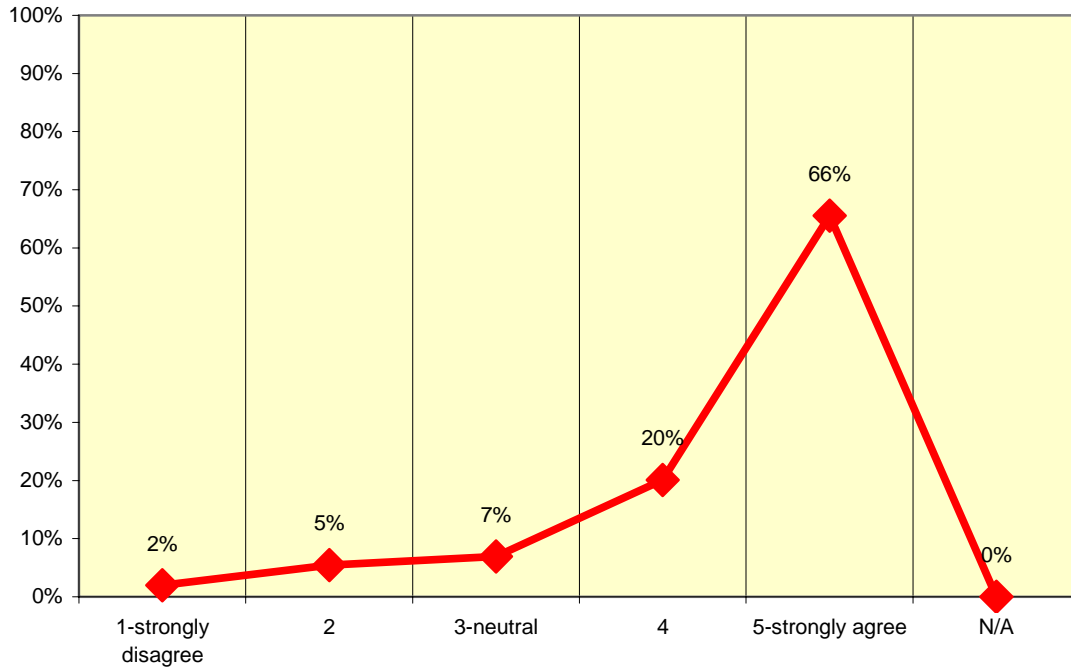

Q7. Course helped develop skills/techniques needed to do research online effectively.

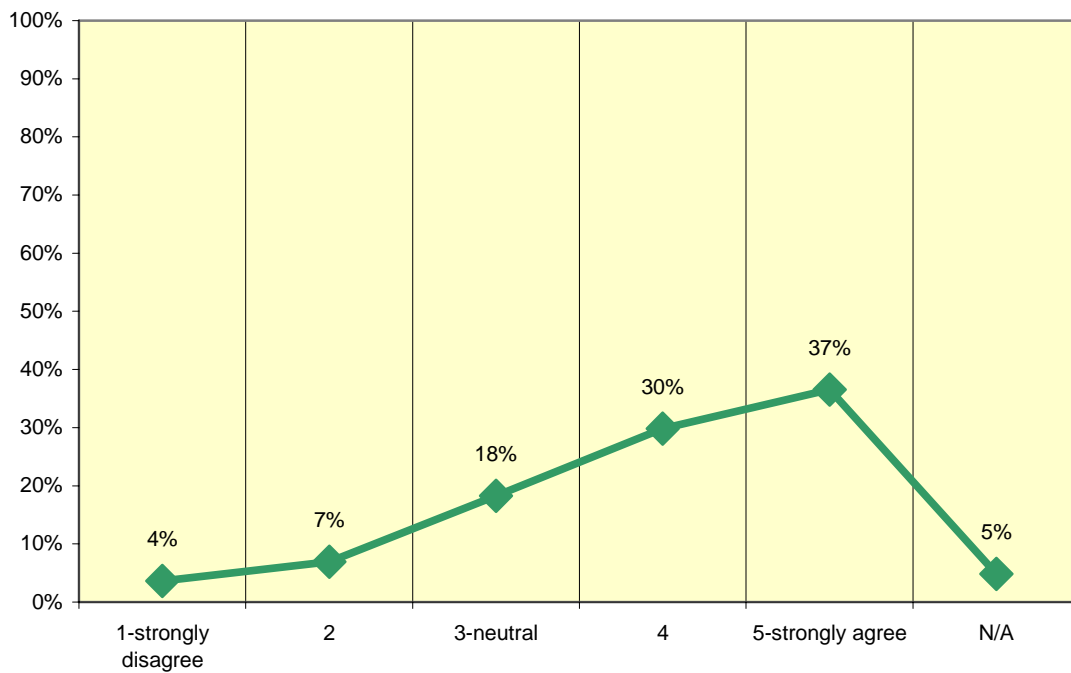

Q8. net.TUTOR tutorials/readings and guides appreciably aided learning in this course.

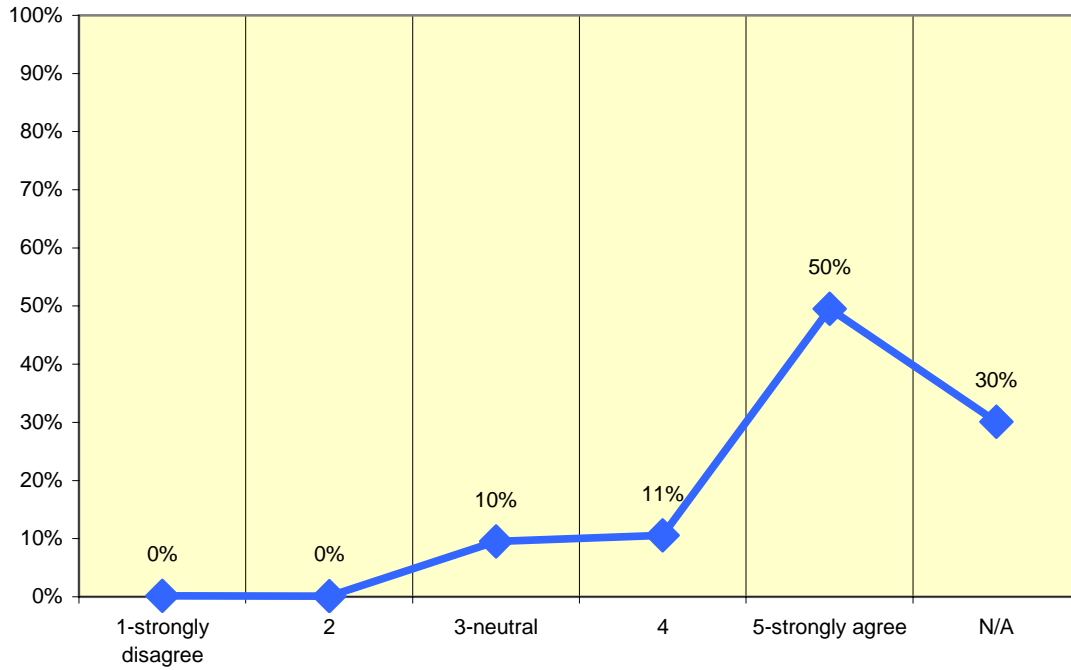

Q9. Online worksheets fairly reflected course content.

Q10. This course will help me succeed in other courses at OSU.

Q11. I was able to get in touch with the instructor easily.

Q12. I learned a great deal from this course.

