

QuickNotes

October 17, 2006

Scroll down for details on these listings:

- NEW: Music/Dance Library Annual LP Sale 11/4
- NEW: "Statistical Literacy: What's the Problem?" 11/14
- "Are We There Yet? 21st Century Challenges in Achieving Diversity" 10/17
- "Digital Storytelling" 10/17
- ReadAloud 10/19
- KNOW Classes

NEW: Music/Dance Library Annual LP Sale, Saturday, November 4, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.: The LPs include jazz, classical, Broadway shows, film scores, easy listening, folk, and spoken word. Most of the LPs are used, but some are in factory-sealed envelopes and others are test pressings and items that are one of a kind. Most items are $1 (for example, a 3-disc LP set would cost $3). Books, musical scores, and CDs will also be on sale. Sale items are donations that have been approved by the donors to be in the sale. Proceeds benefit the Music/Dance Library Endowment Fund.

NEW: "Statistical Literacy: What's the Problem?," with Dr. Joel Best, Tuesday, November 14, 1:30 p.m., Faculty Club Grand Lounge, 181 S. Oval Dr.: The first in a series of four lectures on "information overload," this program features Dr. Best, author of "Damned Lies and Statistics" and "Flavor of the Month: Why People Fall for Fads." For more information, contact Tom Cetwinski, 292-2503. Presented by the OSU Libraries Lecture Committee and supported by the Friends of the OSU Libraries. Please post the attached flyer where appropriate.

"Are We There Yet? 21st Century Challenges in Achieving Diversity," President's 2006-2007 Diversity Lecture & Cultural Arts Series, Tuesday, October 17, 4 p.m. Saxbe Auditorium, Drinko Hall, 55 W. 12th Avenue: The speaker is Charles J. Ogletree, Jr., recently named one of the 100 most influential Black Americans by Ebony magazine. Free; open to all faculty, staff and students. For further information, contact Edie Waugh at 292-4355.

"Digital Storytelling," Tuesday, October 17, Smith Building Board Room, OCLC, Dublin Ohio: Featuring presenters Anne Fields and Karen Diaz. Come and hear how digital storytelling contributes to the increasing role of social technologies in our society and in our libraries. This program will further define and illustrate the use of digital storytelling in the library environment. See examples of library stories, discuss the potentials for how this medium can be used, discuss the challenges of creating a digital storytelling "program" and issues surrounding how these stories might be stored and shared. Refreshments, 6:30 p.m.; presentation, 7 p.m. RSVP to Dr. Laura Cheng

ReadAloud, Thursday, October 19, 3-4 p.m., Crane Cafe, Hagerty Hall: Check for this week's readers. ReadAloud will take place in the courtyard in fair weather and otherwise in the adjacent space indoors.

The KNOW Classes for Fall '06 at the Prior Health Sciences Library offer faculty and staff development opportunities in healthcare education, information, & technology. October classes include; Copyright and Fair Use, Resources for EBM Information, Finding and Using Online Journals, Health Information Literacy, and Technology Tools and Podcasting. For information about all of the Fall classes and online registration, go to the Prior Health Sciences Library calendar <http://library.med.ohio-state.edu/index.cfm> We are interested in adding new topics to the classes and appreciate your suggestions. Contact Rebecca Ayers, 292-4893 or ayers.63@osu.edu

Beginning next week, QuickNotes will be incorporated into NewsNotes, and NewsNotes will become a weekly electronic publication. NewsNotes will be sent to "Liball" on Tuesday, October 24. If you have something you'd like included, send it to Larry Allen by Monday, October 23. Please make the subject heading "NewsNotes."