"Plagiarism: Challenges, Strategies, Policies, Practice," Thursday, October 6, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m., Thompson Library, Room 122: This workshop offers an overview of the problem, examples of how it affects campuses and libraries, ways to combat it, and a survey of software products available to detect it. Presented by David Stewart, Director of Library Services, Luther Seminary, St. Paul, MN, and Sue Shick, Instructional Media Designer, John Carroll University, University Heights, OH. Sponsored by the Ohio Theological Library Association and funded by a grant from the Professional Development Committee of the American Theological Library Association. Reservations not required, but a note or call indicating your interest is appreciated. Contact Marti Alt (688-8655).

Award-winning poet Sam Hamill conducting poetry reading Thursday, October 6, 7 p.m., Thompson Library, Room 210: Hamill is the author of 14 volumes of original poetry, and is the founding editor of Cooper Canyon Press. His work has been translated into more than a dozen languages. For more information, call 292-5938.

OSU Archives turns 40: The staff of The Ohio State University Archives has created an anniversary web site in honor of its 40th birthday. The site features the history of the Archives, its various locations on campus and unusual reference requests throughout the years. The site also highlights the significant anniversary celebrations of the University.

Birthday Party, Wednesday, October 5, 2-3:30 p.m., Thompson Library Staff Lounge: Come and enjoy cake, punch, ice cream, popcorn and fun, in honor of our co-workers with birthdays in September, October, November and December. Sponsored by The Libraries' Staff Advisory Council and Library Administration.

ReadAloud Reads Along, Thursdays, 3-4 p.m., Sills Gallery, Thompson Library: Don't forget this weekly program, with members of the OSU community reading portions of their favorite books. Free coffee and refreshments.

Interlibrary Services Tour October 5, 10 a.m.: This behind-the-scenes tour will show you how ILS does things, and provide an opportunity to ask questions so you can better assist patrons. If you plan to attend, please email: <mailto:libartexp@osu.edu>

a.m. to 4 p.m.: Books, musical scores, and a few CDs will also be on sale. The vinyl LP recordings include jazz, classical, Broadway shows, film scores, easy listening, folk, and spoken word. Most of the LPs are used, but some are in factory-sealed envelopes and others are test pressings and other items that are one of a kind. Most items are $1. Proceeds from the sale benefit the Friends of the OSU Libraries. Sale items are donations that have been approved by the donors to be in the sale. Proceeds benefit the library.

Paperless Pay login changed: You can no longer use your Social Security number to access your pay and leave information on the University's Paperless Pay system. You will need to use your 8-digit employee identification number, found on past pay stubs and Buck IDs issued after 2002.
