NEW/TODAY: New Student Employee Orientation, October 3, 5:30-7:30 p.m., Science & Engineering Library, Room 090: Training Advisory Council has added some exciting new elements to the orientation sessions this quarter, including a digital storytelling presentation, interactive electronic polling with attendees, and a new photo quiz of the various library locations. As always, refreshments and activity prizes will be given to the students who attend. Any supervisor interested in seeing the revised orientation is also welcome to attend. No reservations are needed. Additional workshops for student employees who cannot attend today are scheduled for Friday, October 6, 2:30-4:30 pm; Wednesday, October 11, 5:30-7:30 pm; Tuesday, October 17, 5:30-7:30 pm; Friday, October 27: 2:30-4:30 pm. All sessions will be at SEL in Room 090.

Library Researching Workshops, October 4, 11 a.m.; October 5, 3 p.m.; October 8, 2 p.m., Sullivant Library, 1813 N. High St., Room 244A: These one-hour orientations include an introduction to searching the catalog, using OhioLINK and working with journal databases. The orientations include time for hands-on practice. No registration is required.

Lecture by cartoonist Keith Knight, October 5, 7:30 p.m., OSU's Hale Black Cultural Center, 153 W. 12th Ave.: Knight, cartoonist, hip-hop artist, and community activist, creates two nationally-syndicated weekly comics, the K Chronicles and th(ink). They appear in weekly newspapers across the country and on web sites such as www.salon.com. His cartoons also regularly appear in MAD Magazine and ESPN The Magazine.

ReadAloud, Thursday, October 5, 3-4 p.m., Crane Cafe, Hagerty Hall, 1775 College Rd.: Check here for this week's readers. ReadAloud will take place in the courtyard in fair weather and otherwise in the adjacent space indoors.

“Cartooning Is Serious Business,” workshop with cartoonist Keith Knight, October 7, 10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., Columbus College of Art and Design, 107 N. 9th St.: Mr. Knight will draw upon 12 years as a self-syndicated cartoonist for this intensive workshop, which is an advanced class for artists, illustrators and cartoonists interested in making cartooning a viable money-making career. The workshop will focus on the business side of comics from marketing and promotions to dealing with syndicates and negotiating publishing contracts. This workshop is free, but an RSVP is required. RSVP by September 30 to cartoons@osu.edu. Workshop co-sponsored by the Cartoon Research Library, the Columbus College of Art and Design, the Institute for Collaborative Research and Public Humanities, and the Ohio Arts Council

ASC Meeting, October 9, 1-2 p.m., Ackerman Library, Room 5826: Kevin King, Office of Academic Affairs, will discuss internal controls pertaining to financial and personnel matters at the University. Kevin will discuss OSU's procedures for ensuring that expenditures and policies are appropriate. If you or your staff travel, use a procurement card, or sign time sheets, this session will be very relevant. Don't forget you can take the bus to Ackerman.

The next issue of QuickNotes will be sent to "Liball" on Tuesday, October 10. If you have something you'd like included, send it to Larry Allen at <mailto:allen.916@osu.edu> by Monday, October 9. Please make the subject heading "QuickNotes."
