Professor sees key to history in Mayan plaza

Monday, August 19, 1996

By Dagmar Cianelli Lantern staff writer

An Ohio State professor's research on the architecture of two Mexican cities offers a new interpretation of their history.

Lindsay Jones, OSU associate professor of Comparative Studies, outlines his findings in a new book, "Twin City Tales.

The two pre-Colombian cities in Mexico in question are Tula, the capital of the Toltec Indians of central Mexico, and Chichen Itza, the capital of the Mayan Indians of the Yucatan peninsula of Mexico.

"The debate between scholars has always been how we might explain the similarities when there is, or so it seems, virtually nothing similar in the area between the two cities," Jones said. Both cities have similar

Boris Yeltstin may require double-bypass heart surgery

NEW YORK (AP) - Boris Yeltsin's health is far more precarious than previously disclosed, Time magazine reported Sunday, so serious that the Kremlin is considering sending the Russian president abroad for double-bypass surgery.

Yeltsin's health has been a serious concern for months, especially in the run-up to his July re-election when Yeltsin inexplicably disappeared for days - prompting rumors the 65-year-old leader had suffered a heart attack or had gone on a drinking binge.

Time said it had obtained a Kremlin medical advisory detailing the seriousness of Yeltsin's condition.

It said V.S. Dubrovin, head of the doctors monitoring the president's health, reported that Yeltsin's cardiac ischemia constriction of the heart caused by blocked arteries - had worsened during the election campaign following a "crisis situation" in mid-June.

"According to a source close to the president's security service," Time reported a "relapse occurred partly because Yeltsin gave up his prescribed medication and went on a drinking binge that may have affected his heart as well as the left side of his brain.'

There was no official comment Sunday in Moscow to the magazine report, nor did the presidential press service answer phone calls by The Associated Press. Yeltsin dropped out of sight at the end of the election campaign and on July 15 checked into a government health resort outside Moscow. Aides said he worked steadily during his stay at the resort and needs a more

JACKSON, Wyo. (AP) - Recovery teams had to hike and ride on horseback Sunday to reach the wreckage of a military cargo plane carrying gear for President Clinton that slammed into the side of a mountain. Nine people aboard were killed.

In Abilene, news of the crash saddened the Dyess community and its host city. Abilene Mayor Gary McCaleb said, "It's a real blow to the whole community because the city of Abilene and Dyess ... have such a close, familytype feeling."

A Clinton administration official said the pilot reported mechanical trouble and had started to return to the airport. But others cautioned against speculating on why the plane went down.

"Whether they flew into the mountain or lost control for some aircraft reason, we don't know," said Jeff Brown, president of Jackson Hole Aviation, the airport's fixed base operator. "It could have been an inflight shift of cargo or who knows, engine failure, the whole gambit."

The only pieces of the plane left intact were a piece of the tail section and several wheels, said Keith Benefiel of the Teton County Search and Rescue Team.

Air Force officials from Hill Air Force Base in Utah and from Dvess gathered Sunday and began preparations for an investigation into the cause of the accident. The plane was equipped with voice and cockpit data recorders.

Campus Partners wants to improve offcampus parking through added meter spaces and possibly parking garages.

"In any urban-university area, parking is a major issue," said Steve Sterrett, Campus Partners spokesperson. Parking is a concern for residents, students and businesses in the area, Sterrett

Sara Rossio, a junior majoring in business, said the closer to campus she gets the harder it is to find a parking spot. "I could never, ever find a parking spot and would end up walking a significant distance," Rossio said. "But, putting in a parking garage might take away from the area, and I would prefer to walk or deal with a 10minute drive looking for a parking space."

There are competing demands for parking between residents and patrons for businesses, Sterrett said.

Campus Partners hired traffic and parking consultants who identified 16,300 parking spaces in the campus area, excluding Ohio State parking, and 4,900 of those spaces are on-street spaces.

The consultants also surveyed businesses along High Street and found they feel they have a loss of trade due to lack of parking. "One of the things holding back it's [businesses] potential is a lack of parking," Sterrett said.

Backup quarterback Kemp upstages Dole

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) - What tax cuts? Football took center stage on the Republican campaign trail Sunday with a rowdy stadium homecoming for Jack Kemp. GOP nominee Bob Dole was along for the ride, happy "to be the man Jack Kemp brought with him.'

Closing out their frenetic, post-convention campaign tour through four states in three days, the presidential running mates swept into the city where Kemp quarterbacked for the Buffalo Bills.

An estimated 10,000 people - the Dole-Kemp ticket's biggest crowd so far - packed a football stadium at Buffalo's State University of New York campus. "Welcome Back Jack," was spelled out in huge white letters on a slope behind the goal post. New York Republicans including Gov. George Pataki and Rep. Bill Paxon reveled in the enthusiasm Kemp has brought to the race.

In 15-minute remarks linking his football days to his 18-year congressional career representing the predominantly ethnic Buffalo, Kemp gave voice to analyses that his moderate social views and reputation for outreach in minority communities could help broaden

"You cannot walk in a huddle of men from different backgrounds and ethnic groups and religions and colors and not realize that this nation's one team, one family under God, with respect for each other," Kemp said.

Defying speculation that Dole is concerned about being upstaged, the presidential nominee took the microphone first in a generous, witty introduction.

"Jack told me he had a career that left him battered, bruised, down on the ground, and out of breath," Dole quipped. "And I said, 'Jack, enough about politics, let's talk about foot-

OSU hosts worldwide conference to help environment

Scientists, chemists and ecologists from around the world, with research papers in hand, came together at Ohio State for an international conference, "Carbon Sequestration in Soil.'

"The basic elements that a pilot needs for takeoff and landing are there," said ASOS program manager Vicki Nadolski. "They might have been used to getting something more than that, and of course they don't want to lose that."

But FAA officials say the system cannot accurately identify thunderstorms, freezing precipitation, lightning and virga — rain that evaporates before reaching the ground.

An April 1995 audit by the General Accounting Office, the investigative arm of Congress, found that the system was notorious for underestimating potentially hazardous weather.

All-Star Lantern CD review

The Lantern's Best CD award goes to:

Hayden - Everything Long For This is the only CD to receive 5 of 5 stars in the Lanton

Havden Everything I Long For ****

Hayden's debut CD is absolutely amazing. His acoustic guitar style and melancholy lyrics really break things down to the bare bones of why music is in existence: expression.

His thick, seasoned voice and ability to write emotionallycharged songs helps give Hayden's music an unforgettable, potentially life-changing quality. His songs deal with topics almost everyone in his generation can relate to.

Everything I Long For is packed with heart-wrenching emotion.

Every track proves that Hayden has a natural talent for creating haunting melodies and gripping lyrics. His soul runs deep.

This 25-year-old mastermind of music has got to be the best product to come out of Toronto, Canada, for a long time. It would be unfair to compare his voice to other famous musicians but it is miraculous how he has an ability sound just like Kurt Cobain, Eddie Ved-der, and Tom Waits all at the same time. However, Hayden doesn't need to be lumped into any one category. He has a sound all his own, and the best way to describe it is INTENSE!

Track 1, "Bad As They Seem," has a video on MTV's 120 Minutes and is getting some radio air play.

A slow, humorous song, it reveals
Hayden's love crush on a 16-yearold girl down the street.

Track 2, "In September," reveals Hayden's heavy-hitting side. The howling acoustic guitar that is set on "distort mode" sets the scene for on track 3, "We Don't Mind,"

Hayden describes an afternoon with the girl of his dreams. A slow, flowing tune, track 3 has simple, yet creative guitar parts, and heart-felt lyrics with a great back-ground vocal melody. This track, as with most of his songs, was recorded in Hayden's room at home, and probably was recorded in one take.

From top to bottom, Everything

It's one of those CDs that can become more and more addictive each time it is heard.

If you want to hear something original, melodic and hard-hitting, this is the CD you have been looking for. Very, very impressive.

Indians prepare for final stretch of season

By Patrick Chun Lantern sports writer

The Cleveland Indians are rounding third and heading home. With just 38 games left in the regular season, Indians are making their final push in their quest for the American League pennant.

Our first goal is to win the Central Division," Indians general manager John Hart said. "The main thing for us right now is to get healthy. We have Julio Franco, who has been out really for almost two months. We have Jack McDowell, who is coming off the disabled list and we have to get him going. We have Dennis Martinez, who we hope to activate this week. If we can get them back, keep them healthy and have them play like they are capable of playing, I think our club will be American League (75-49).

"All we have to do is play consis-tent, hard baseball," Indians pitcher Charles Nagy said.

A problem that will arise for the Indians if they make the playoffs will be facing quality left-handed pitchers. The Indians are only 19-17 against left-handed starters. Manager Mike Hargrove plans to tinker with his lineup in preparation for the playoffs. Hargrove said that he will give Jim Thome more at bats against left-handers and Thome wants to erase any doubts about his ability against left-

"You can't hit them unless you face them," Thome said. "They told me I was going to get a chance to play every day in the second half. When I come to the ballpark, I want to see my name in the lineup. I want to be a Cal Ripken type player - the guy who's name you pencil in with no days off and just plays hard. If not being in the lineup helps this team win, then I have no problem sitting. Our goal is to bring a championship to Cleveland.'

Indians pick favorites for college football

By Patrick Chun Lantern Sports Writer

College football fever is spreading with the season kicking off in just a couple of weeks. The fever has even spread into the Cleveland Indians clubhouse.

The diversity of the Indians is obvious. The Indians consist of players from all over the United States, the Dominican Republic, and Venezuela.

Some of the Indians offered their prognostications of the upcoming college season and their thoughts of Ohio State football.

John Hart, general manager - "Ohio State had a great club last year. I know they lost Eddie George and their starting quarterback (Bobby Hoying). They always do a great job and there is a lot of talent. I wouldn't be surprised if they had a great year. I am a diehard Florida football fan. I was born and raised there and have followed the Gators forever. Florida would always break my heart but last year they had a great year. But if I had to pick a team, it would be Nebraska.

Dave Nelson, first base coach - "I hope the Buckeyes rebound after last year's finish. The Big Ten is so tough. Northwestern looks tough. I have been a Buckeyes fan for a while. I used to follow them when Archie Griffin was there. I went to the Rose Bowl in 1969 to see the Buckeyes play USC (University of Southern California). It was quite a thrill for me to see Jack Tatum and O.J.

Simpson play against each other." Charles Nagy, pitcher - "I really can't pick a No. 1 right now, but Nebraska is the defending national champion and they will be strong."

Kent Mercker, pitcher - "It's in the bag. Ohio State looks very good. Last year was a great year and I look for the same this year. Naturally Ohio State will win the Ohio State will kill Big Ten. Michigan this year."

Jim Thome, third baseman. "I've got Illinois winning it all. I'm from Illinois and I know the defensive coordinator so it's a personal thing."

Greg Swindell, pitcher - "I don't know too much about Ohio State because I'm from Texas. No. 1 is up for grabs and all the good teams from last year are back in it. Ohio State has a good team but the road to the championship will go through the Big Twelve."

Brian Giles, outfielder -"Ohio State should be strong. They have some guys returning and are an exciting team to watch. But San Diego State is my Thome's first homer in the third inning came with a touch of controversy. A fan reached over the railing and touched the ball, and the umpire ruled it a double. Cleveland manager Mike Hargrove charged out of the dugout, arguing correctly that the ball was above the fence and convinced the ump to change his call.

Leading 6-3 in the eighth, Cleveland added a run on Omar Vizquel's RBI ingle. Then Thome made it 11-3 with his slam to right off Gregg Olson.

Ogea, meanwhile, continued to provide much-needed pitching help while Dennis Martinez is on the disabled list and Jack McDowell's forearm still hurts. Ogea walked two, struck out five and allowed six hits.

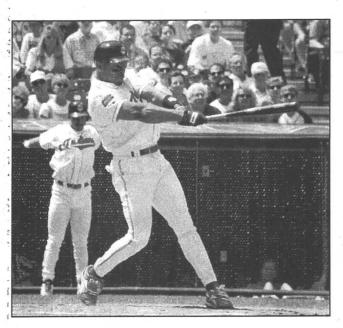

Cleveland scored four in the first off Brian Williams (3-10). Thome and Sandy Alomar had RBI singles, Manny Ramirez an RBI double and Brian Giles a sacrifice fly.

Alomar also had run-scoring single in the second.

Ramirez had a career-high three doubles - two to left and one to right.

The Tigers got a solo homer from Brad Ausmus in the third and RBI singles by Ruben Sierra and Tony Clark in the sixth.

Sierra, acquired from the New York Yankees in the Cecil Fielder trade, made two of Detroit's three errors - a bad throw and a dropped foul popup.

Barkley gets wish granted, is a Rocket

PHOENIX (AP) - The Houston Rockets' summerlong pursuit of Charles Barkley is about to bear fruit, according to a published report that says the Phoenix Suns will trade the All-Star forward for four players.

The Arizona Republic, citing an unidentified source in Houston, reported Sunday that the four-forone swap would likely be announced Monday if details can be worked out.

The story said Houston would sent point guard Sam Cassell and forwards Robert Horry, Mark Bryant and Chucky Brown to Phoenix. All four players will become free agents after this sea-

Houston radio station KTRH reported Sunday that, pending league approval, the deal would materialize. It quoted unidentified sources as saying the teams awaited only NBA approval. Brown said he was left wondering if a possible trade was behind a telephone message left Sunday at his home by Rockets coach Rudy Tomjanovich.

"I don't think he normally calls people, you know, to tell them they've been traded or something.' Brown told KTRH.

Neither Suns President Jerry Colangelo nor Barkley's agent. Glen Guthrie, could be reached by The Associated Press for comment on Sunday. Calls to Tomjanovich and two other team officials were not immediately returned.

Barkley's relationship with the Suns soured last season, and he has said he would retire if the Suns didn't trade him to a contending team. In an interview with NBC's Bob Costas during the NBA finals in June, Barkley said Houston was among the teams he would consider joining.

The Rockets have aggressively pursued a deal for Barkley this ummer. Rumors last month Barkley going to Houston in a three-way deal that would have sent Horry and Cassell to Denver, and free agent center Dikembe Mutombo to Phoenix.

According to the Republic, the Rockets made a new offer to the Suns last week that added Brown to the package of Horry and Cassell. After the deal was rejected, the Rockets agreed to the Suns' demand to add Bryant.

Bryant, an eight-year NBA veteran, would strengthen the Suns' defense and rebounding. Cassell and Horry played key roles in the Rockets' back-to-back world championships in 1994 and 1995.

Horry, 25, was the 11th pick of the draft in 1992 out of Alabama. Cassell, 26, was the 24th player aken in the first round of the 1993

BROOKLYN, Mich. (AP) -Dale Jarrett added another memorable moment to the best season of his career, and continued the frustration of Mark Martin with a victory Sunday in the GM Goodwrench 400.

Jarrett, whose first Winston Cup win came almost exactly five years ago at same Michigan international Speedway, outdueled Martin in a battle Ford's down the stretch to win by .168 seconds.

It was the fourth triumph this season for Jarrett, who had won only four Winston Cup races prior to 1996. His first career victory was Aug. 17, 1991, at Michigan. In that race, as in this one, Jarrett started 11th in the field.

Martin, who has 18 career victories and has triumphed at least once in each of the previous seven seasons, remained winless in 21 races this year.

bonus. He has won the Brickyard 400 at Indianapolis, the Daytona five finish for Labonte, who has 500 and the Coca-Cola 600 at Charlotte. The races at Daytona and Charlotte, along with the Winston Select 500 at Talladega which Jarrett did not win - and the Southern 500 comprise the Winston Select Million.

If he wins the Southern 500 at Darlington on Sept. 1, Jarrett will become just the second driver to claim the prize. Bill Elliott won in the first year it was offered, in Terry Labonte, the Winston Cup points leader, slipped past Ernie Irvan's Ford with two laps remaining to claim third place in his Chevrolet. That left Labonte with 3,137 points and a comfortable 134-point lead over Dale Earnhardt and Jeff Gordon. They are tied for second.

Gordon and Earnhardt, both driving Chevys, finished fifth and 17th, respectively. Jarrett's victory gave Ford a sweep of the two Winston Cup races this year on Michigan's high-banked 2-mile

It was the third consecutive top never won in 36 starts at Michigan.

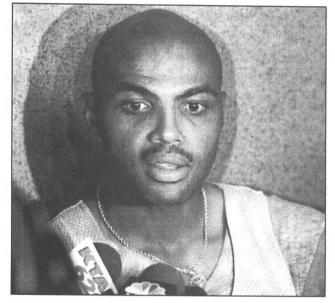

The key to the previous two Winston Cup races at Michigan was fuel mileage, but that wasn't as important as staying clear of traffic in this race.

Last year's GM Goodwrench 400 had only three caution flags for 16 laps. In this year's Miller 400, there were only two cautions for nine laps. In that race, Rusty Wallace went the final 52 laps without stopping for fuel to earn the victory. Wallace's average speed of 166.033 mph in that race set a track record.

This race was much slower, with an unofficial average speed of only 139.740, because of eight cautions for 28 laps. All the leaders made their final pit stops under caution with 48 laps remaining.

The final caution came with eight laps remaining after Earnhardt and Ken Schrader collided near turn 4. Martin, who had been leading since lap 105, stayed out on the track, along with Jarrett, Irvan and Labonte.

Refugee bridges gap between cultures

FAIRFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Viet- because of the war. namese refugee Phan Vu once waited for safe passage out of war to the United States. For the past 20 years he's been helping others adjust to life in a new land.

Vu was honored Thursday by his employer, Catholic Social Services of 4,000 refugees from Vietnam and other countries resettle and find jobs in the Cincinnati area.

Vu and his wife, Christine, were able to leave Saigon in April 1975 because their oldest of three sons, Duy Vu, was born in Texas in 1971. They had been studying in the United States when they met in 1970 and got married soon after.

The Vus moved back to Vietnam in 1972, but left three years later

Upon coming to Fairfield, 20 miles northwest of Cincinnati, he and wife became interpreters to help other refugees. The volunteer work led to his job as coordinator of a refugee resettlement program.

"He was intelligent and interest-Southwestern Ohio, for helping ed, warm and welcoming and forgiving of our lack of knowledge about his culture," said Maureen Krah, executive director of Catholic Social Services in Butler County, who recommended Vu for the job.

Finding dependable sponsors for refugees has been more difficult in the last 10 years, Vu said. He has tapped many church communities twice and is hesitant to approach them a third time.

Public opinion also has changed.

Prison population rising

WASHINGTON (AP) - The number of men and women in the nation's prisons and jails climbed to nearly 1.6 million last year, culminating a decade in which the U.S. rate of incarceration nearly doubled, the Justice Department reported Sunday.

By the end of 1995, one out of every 167 Americans was in prison or jail, compared to 1 out of every 320 a decade earlier, according to the department's Bureau of Justice Statistics.

The world's highest incarceration rate has seesawed in recent years between the United States and Russia, with both far outdistancing other nations.

The bureau said that as of last Dec. 31 there were 1,078,357 men and women in federal and state prisons, which usually house sentenced prisoners serving more than one year. That was an increase of 86,745 over the previous year, or 8.7 percent.
