VIOLIN AND VOCAL SOLOS TO FEATURE GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Program for Saturday Night's Performance in the Chapel Is Announced.

"Lochinvar," Poem by Walter Scott, Is in Contrast to Last Year's More Frivolous Skit.

Soloists for the home concert of the Men's Glee Club in the Chapel Saturday at 8:15 p. m., are Charles R. Brokaw, A-4, vocal, and William P.
Jenkins, P-2, violin.

Both men were well received during the two trips made this year by the club. The Sanusky Star-Journal has the following to say about their performance in that city: "The solos presented by William P. Jenkins, violinist, were beautifully rendered, and 'The Swan,' the second number of his group, showed lovely tone quality. The vocal solos as given by Charles Brokaw were interesting, and 'The Trumpeter,' a stirring song by Dix, was given with dramatic feeling. The negro song which followed was sung with appreciation of the text."

Solo Parts in "Lochinvar" Saturday night Jenkins will play Handel's "Sonata D Major" and Beethoven's "Minuet," and Brokaw will sing Dix's "The Trumpeter" and "Courtin' Liza Jane." During the singing of "Lochinvar," solo parts will be taken by Ralph D. Roehm, A-4, and Nelson H. Budd, A-2.

"Lochinvar" is the most pretentious number ever attempted by a local glee club. It is the famous poem of Sir Walter Scott set to music by Walter Hammond and consists of 21 pages.
It is in line with the general tone of the entire program, which is in sharp contrast to the one offered last year, when it met with much criticism because of its frivolity. However, the lighter numbers have not been overlooked, since there will also be a ragtime medley directed by Frederick J.
Zint, C-4. This will also mark the first formal singing on the campus of the prize-winning song in the interfraternity contest last year, "The Buckeye Battle Cry," by Frank Crumit.

All Seats Reserved
Tickets went on sale Tuesday at Hennick's and the Jolly Gargoyle, admission being 75 cents downstairs and 50 cents in the balcony, with all seats reserved. Fraternities and faculty members have been given a chance to reserve their seats before the general sale.

Ten girls have been appointed by the Girls' Glee Club to act as ushers.
The picnic of the Woman's Club of Ohio State University will be held Saturday at 5:30 p. m. and will be over before the beginning of the concert.

SUMMER SCHOOL OFFERS COURSES IN JOURNALISM

Three courses in journalism will be offered in the summer session for the benefit of the students who wish to Lantern throughout the summer session.

The subscription price of the summer Lantern will be 75 cents and the paper will be mailed to any out-of-town subscriber. Lanterns for the students in the summer session will not be delivered, but may be obtained at the entrance board office or at The Lantern office. Anyone desiring to subscribe may do so by calling at The Lantern office.

TWO FACULTY MEMBERS AT CHICAGO MEETING

Dean J. E. Hagerty Opens Discussion on "Courses in Marketing" at National Convention.

Dean James E. Hagerty of the College of Commerce and Journalism and Professor Clyde O. Ruggles of the department of economics and sociology have returned from Chicago, where they attended the second general meeting of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Business, May 6, 7 and 8, under the auspices of the University of Chicago.

The session opened Thursday, May 6, with an executive meeting, followed by a round-table discussion of administration problems. On Friday, "Business Research" was discussed, and following a luncheon at the University of Chicago, Dean Hagerty opened the discussion on "Courses in Marketing," preceding which a paper on this subject was read by Professor M. T. Copeland of the University of Illinois.

Saturday was taken up with a business meeting, at which the methods of teaching business were mentioned.
This was followed by a luncheon given by the Northwestern University School of Commerce.

Dean Hagerty left Tuesday afternoon for Dayton, where he will address the Present-day Club Tuesday evening on the subject of "Social Unrest."

REQUESTS ORGANIZATIONS' AID

Societies to Help Faculty Committee Plan Reunions.

Plans for having former members of the different campus organizations present at the semicentennial, which takes place October 13, 14, 15 and 16, will be discussed Friday noon at a meeting called by Professor Joseph S.
Myers of the department of journalism. The idea of society reunions will be explained and organizations asked to help get in touch with their alumni.

Professor Myers requests that the following organizations send representatives: Mortar Board, Browning Society, Chimes, Varsity "A," Womanan's Athletic Association, Philomathean, History Club, University Dames, Oxley Hall, Kappa Phi, Girls' Glee Club, Sphinx, Bucket and Dipper, Varsity "O," Political Science Club, Mathematics Club, Boost Ohio, Scabbard and Blade, Men's Glee Club, University Orchestra, Strollers and the

CO-ED TRACK STARS WILL COMPETE IN OUTDOOR CARNIVAL

Woman's Athletic Association to Give Trophies to Winners in First Girls' Track Meet.

Coach Castleman Assists in Planning for Festival on Ohio Field May 19--System Discussed.

A co-ed track meet, the first to be held at Ohio State University, will be staged May 19 at 3 p. m. on Ohio Field, in place of "open night," which before the war was an annual celebration put on by the woman's department of physical education.

Much interest is being shown and already many have entered the various events. As much of the work is new, a special class in track work will be held every Friday noon. Track Coach Frank R. Castleman is assisting in making the preparations for the meet. Professor Florence A. Meyer and Clara Raynor Ranck are in charge of the affair.

Awards to Be Given

Individual honors will be awarded as well as class and intramural honors. The ribbons for first, second and third places will be awarded at the Woman's Athletic Association banquet to be held May 27. In addition to regular events, group games will feature the meet.

Points for participation in the track meet will count as exhibition points toward winning a numeral. The exhibition award has a circular gray field with a scarlet border and numeral.

System Is Outlined

The award system recently adopted by the Woman's Athletic Association provides for four classes of awards, namely, hiking, sports, general gymnasium work and exhibition work.
Prerequisites for the awards are: eligibility both as to residence requirements and to scholarship, membership and good standing in the Woman's Athletic Association. One hundred points in any group are necessary for the winning of a numeral and no more than one numeral of each class may be awarded to any one person.

A letter will be awarded to the winner of three numerals. No work done previous to the second semester, 1918-1919, is to be counted toward a numeral.

Persons working for numerals are excused from winning the extra points yearly required by the constitution to remain an active member.

GLEE CLUB HOLDS BANQUET

Past and Future Discussed at Annual Affair of Organization.

Plans for the future as well as the success of the past were discussed at the annual banquet of the Girls' Glee Club held at the Chittenden Hotel Saturday night.

Director Karl H. Hoenig expressed his gratification over the success which the club had attained, and said that he desired that the Choral Union practice would in the future begin in September instead of in March, as in the past. Toasts were given by several of the members, with Christine Grant, A-E-4, acting as toastmaster.

Guests of the club included Mrs.
Karl H. Hoenig, Dean Elisabeth Conrad and former directors of the club.

Although Afraid, Joyriders Declare that Aerial Trip Gives Time of Lives

"Afraid? I'll say they are! But after it's over they all declare they have had the time of their lives." That is what Joseph B. Kuhn, Ed-3, an ex-army aviator, says about students whom he has given the thrill that goes with the first flight in an airplane.

Fifteen students have had their curiosity and craving for excitement satisfied since Kuhn has brought his "ship" to the University, and dozens have made inquiries regarding the possibilities of making a flight. But because he is using as a flying field ground belonging to the University, the flyer is not permitted to charge a fare to students, and consequently is not doing the big business that he might.

COMING EVENTS ARE DISCUSSED BY KEYSTONE MEMBERS

May Fete Tickets Given to Organization Presidents at Meeting in Chapel Wednesday.

Co-operation in Campus Breakfast and Lantern Ceremony Pledged by Co-ed Leaders.

Lantern ceremony, May breakfast and May Fete were discussed by Keystone, consisting of the presidents of all woman's organizations on the campus, at a meeting in the Chapel Monday at 5 p. m.

The lantern ceremony is a tradition in which the senior girls give to the juniors the "lamp of knowledge" before commencement of each year. It will take place May 21 at 7 p. m., in the hollow. On Monday, May 17, there will be an election of leaders by open ballot. All senior girls are to vote for any senior whom they wish, to present the lamp to the junior, chosen in like manner by the junior girls.

Early Breakfast Planned

The May breakfast is scheduled to be held in the hollow Tuesday, May 25. Two breakfasts will be served, one at 7 and another at 8 a. m., the earlier one being for the convenience of those having 8-o'clock classes. This undertaking is under the auspices of the Woman's Athletic Association. Its purpose is to provide a get-together affair one morning of the year. Elsie Hinkle, A-4, has charge of the tickets, which will be on sale in about a week, for 35 cents.

The May Fete will take place in the hollow, May 28 at 4 p. m. Henrietta Wahlenmaier, Ag-4, in charge of distributing the tickets, gave to each president as many tickets as there are members in the organization she represents. This is to facilitate easy distribution.

New Chairman Named

Adelaide Hibbard, A-3, was chosen temporary chairman of Keystone for the summer, as Minnette Fritts Proctor will be out of the city.

A motion was passed ordering the presidents of the woman's organizations to attend several special meetings next fall, when they shall be instructed in parliamentary law, probably by a member of the College of Law. This will facilitate the conducting of meetings in their respective organizations, it is believed.

LEGION WILL BEGIN DRIVE

System Arranged So Men Can Belong to Home and College Posts.

American Legion national officials have expressed themselves particularly anxious to get college men into the organization during the drive for membership, which will take place throughout the country May 17 to 22.
A large number of men have failed to join the American Legion while in college, because they felt that their affiliation should be with their home post.

Men who prefer to join a post in their home community can do so and then arrange a transfer of membership to their college post when they return to classes in the fall. Thus a system is arranged so that a man can have full advantage of both his college and his home post, wherever he happens to be.

JOURNALISM STUDENTS WILL TAKE 'NUT TESTS'

Specially Prepared Examination to Be Given All Journalism Colleges in United States.

Students in the department of journalism will have another chance to become acquainted with the much-discussed "nut tests" Thursday, when they will take the standardized psychological test of journalistic aptitude which has been prepared by the department of psychology of Washington University and which is being given in all colleges and universities where courses in journalism are given.

The aim in making and giving these tests, according to Max Freyd of the department of psychology, University of Washington, is along vocational lines. If the facilities which a school has for handling students are limited, the tests should prove of value in eliminating the unfit students. The cost of the examination is borne entirely by the University of Washington. The completed tests will be returned to it for correction and a list of grades will be sent to the head of the department here.

The examination will be given by Professor James W. Bridges of the department of psychology, Thursday at 4 p. m., in room 400, University Hall.
In the general psychological examinations which were given last fall, the College of Commerce and Journalism received the highest ranking of any college in the University.

ENDORSES MAY BREAKFAST

Boost Ohio Decides to Back Girls' Scheme--Plans for Banquet.

Boost Ohio Committee heartily endorsed the proposed May breakfast at its weekly meeting Tuesday. The committee has decided to undertake an educational campaign in which it will endeavor to impress upon the minds of students, especially athletes, the necessity for remaining eligible.

A special committee has been appointed to arrange for a program to be given in connection with the annual alumni banquet, to be held this year on the evening of June 12. Stunts by various campus organizations will provide entertainment.

SOCIETY ARRANGES BANQUET

More than 50 members of the American Ceramic Society are expected at a banquet which will be held Tuesday night at Marzetti's Restaurant. The banquet will take the place of the pig roast which is held annually by the society. Members of the faculty and of the State Bureau of Mines will be present.

ANNUAL LINK DAY TO BE CELEBRATED BY SPHINX SOCIETY

Ceremony With Linking of New Men at University Hall Steps Takes Place Wednesday.

President Thompson Will Dismiss Convocation Early for Services of Honorary Society.

Sphinx, senior men's honorary society, will hold the traditional link ceremonies Wednesday at 11:30 a. m., on the steps of University Hall. President Thompson, having charge of convocation, will dismiss it at 11:30 a. m. so that students can gather around the steps to await the coming of the active Sphinx members, who will be dressed in caps and gowns.
They will start the procession from Ohio Union and march to the steps of University Hall.

After arriving at the steps, the garbed men will go down through the crowd to locate the juniors that are to be linked, and then return to the steps to report the whereabouts of them. Again they descend and link the honored men, who will number not more than 16.

Must Be Good Students

Link Day is celebrated each year on the second Wednesday in May, according to the custom started in 1907.
The members are picked chiefly for their activities during their three years in the University and also their possibilities for their senior year are considered. The records of scholastic standing of the men to be linked have been looked up and this is one of the requisites for Sphinx.

After a welcome to the new men by President Thompson and old Sphinx men, the procession will go to the sundial, where, standing in a circle, "Carmen Ohio" will be sung. Then the march leads to the spring for other ceremonies, after which the new members and also the active members proceed to Ohio Union.

In case of rain the traditional ceremonies will be held in the Chapel, and the students will be expected to fill that place for the event. However, in past years the sun has always shone on Link Day, and it will probably function satisfactorily again this year.

Fourteen Chosen in 1919

Fourteen juniors were selected last year and also President Thompson, who was elected. Present actives are:
Charles W. Harley, C-2; Frederick J.
Bell, C-2; Andrew J. Nemecek, Ag-4; Oliver S. Matheny, C-2; Maurice E.
Steinhilber, C-2; Stanley R. Weik, E-4; Thomas B. Meek, C-2; Francis B. Shaw, A-4; Robert R. Stephenson, L-4; Wayne Fogle, L-4; James C. Francis, E-4; Ferdinand G. Holtkamp, C-2, and Harold L. Kime, L-4.

Other members in school are: Maynard M. Donaldson, C-2; William A.
Dougherty; Frank E. Todd, Ag-4; William D. Griffith, A-4; T. Hilbert Connell, Ag-4, and Mark A. Fuller, Ag-4.

Alumni members who will be present to help welcome the new members are: James G. Thurber, Kenyon S.
Campbell, Clarence E. Bailey, John W.
Bricker, Allen R. Rankin, George L.
Packer, Leo Yassenoff, W. Ray Palmer and three faculty members of Sphinx--Karl T. Finn, George M.
Trautman and Professor Firman E.
Bear.

Formal initiation services, followed by a banquet, will be held Wednesday at 5 p. m. at the Chittenden Hotel. A number of alumni members and faculty members will attend.

STROLLERS TO HOLD MEETING

Strollers will elect officers for next year at a meeting to be held Wednesday at 5 p. m., in Ohio Union. Members wishing to vote must be present, as President Francis B. Shaw will refuse to accept votes by proxy. Offices to be filled are: president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, student representative to Stroller board and Stroller representative to Boost Ohio.

GIRLS' TOURNAMENT STARTS

The first game of the girls' baseball tournament, which was between the Education and Agriculture teams, resulted in a victory for the Education team by a score of 16 to 14. The Arts team defeated the Agriculture team Tuesday by a score of 13 to 1.

LINK DAY

Link Day ceremonies, when Sphinx, men's senior honorary society, chooses those members of the junior class whom it believes deserving of the honor and responsibility of membership, will be observed Wednesday at convocation hour on the steps of University Hall.

Forging that chain of men who have individuality developed to the point of leadership in University activities and have branded themselves men equal to the task of shouldering the responsibilities that go hand in hand with the high honor conferred, has ever been one of the most beautiful and impressive ceremonies of the year.

Election to membership in Sphinx is one of the highest honors that can be paid by the University. To those whose privilege it is to choose the new members of the society, Link Day comes as a solemn climax to a period full of faithful service to their Alma Mater. To those who are selected to succeed the departing leaders, Link Day means an opportunity for more earnest and faithful service. It is the first step toward the goal of achievement, and the success of the newly made members depends upon their willingness to actively further all projects that will result in a bigger and better University. "A chain is as strong as its weakest link" has ever been the unspoken motto of Sphinx.

On this occasion it has always been the custom of the student body to gather en masse before the entrance to University Hall to witness the ceremonies. That gathering this year should be larger than ever as Link Day climaxes the most successful year in the history of Ohio State University. The success of the newly made members as leaders in their various branches of activities will amount to naught unless they have the co-operation and support of the student body. It is the solemn duty of every junior, sophomore and freshman therefore to welcome the new members Wednesday and make those chosen understand that they have the undivided backing of every loyal Ohio State student.

OHIO STATE IN SONG

This year has been one of crowning achievement for the Men's Glee Club. Saturday night in the Chapel, the club will close this most successful period with its annual concert.

This affair promises to be one of the best ever given by the organization. Last year, the club was severely criticized for introducing too much ragtime and comedy into the entertainment, so the 1920 concert will assume the air of a classical rendition. Many of the popular selections of a more serious vein have been selected for the occasion. Good singing, with legitimate popular interludes in keeping with the Glee Club tradition, will make up the program.

Few persons fully realize the real good that the Men's Glee Club does on its jaunts here and there over Ohio. During the past year, two trips were made by the club and both were distinct successes, not only from the viewpoint of the club members, but from that of the listeners in the various cities visited. The entertainments proved to be "knock-outs" everywhere and the members were cordially invited to return again next year. These delightful concerts were certain to impress those fortunate enough to be present, with the character of the University and give the parents of the future college generation an idea of the supervision afforded both men and women by the University.

Another fact in this direction must not be overlooked. While on these journeys from town to town, the members never failed to put in a "Boost Ohio" dig whenever the opportunity was presented. At several places, short concerts were given mainly for the purpose of interesting high-school boys and girls in Ohio State.

Considering the splendid work done by the organization during the past year, it is the duty of every student to get a ticket at once for Saturday's concert. Unless supported by their classmates, what incentive will the singers have not only on Saturday night but next year when the time will come for another tour of the state?

Students should not feel it a duty entirely to be present as there is little doubt that all will be amply repaid for their attendance, since the program will please every lover of music.

THE FLYERS' CONVENTION

Many Ohio State students had the distinct honor over the week-end of having a hand in the convention of the Associated Aero Clubs of Ohio, the first gathering of its kind to be held in the United States.

It is a pleasure to think of having so many fellow students actively engaged in putting across such an original project as that of last week. It but further proves the already accepted conclusion that the college man is in demand when it comes to any such affair.

On the other hand it is an honor for the University to have as its guests on the campus landing field a dozen of the nation's greatest flyers, some of them aces. The reception tendered these men was very fitting when one considers the trials and hardships the flyers were forced to go through in the recent war.

Every University aviator seems highly pleased with the results of the first gathering of the airmen, which is indeed gratifying, since so many University men were largely responsible for its success. It is to be hoped that the organization will continue to grow and that further success will follow the airmen in their venture to organize the air forces of the nation.

And now some will cry that the campus cop takes all the joy out of joy-riding when he prohibits capering over various parts of a moving automobile's anatomy.

It is fully in keeping with the nautical relationships of the gentlemen in question for the headline writer to announce "Daniels Launches an Attack on Sims."

Since sugar is to be no lower for a while, this "sweets to the sweets" business will soon bring a sour smile to pinched pocketbooks.

Many men who are expected to sound the keynote of any occasion often get their chords mixed and sound the death knell.

The way the Ohio State rifle team is cleaning up all comers shows why the Buckeyes were such sure shots during the war.

As tasks continue to pile up, the overworked senior looks at his "profs" with a "have-a-heart" appeal.

Mexico's national pastime for several years has been "hide and go seek."

There's no place like a tennis court for variety of wearing apparel.

All hot house plants are not in the greenhouses.

What do May showers bring?

WASHINGTON STATUE AT MIAMI

A statue of George Washington has been given Miami University by its oldest living alumnus, Dr. S. S. Laws, and will be unveiled in the library at Oxford at commencement exercises next month. It is a copy of a similar statue in the Virginia State Capitol, designed in France for Thomas Jefferson in 1797.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY IN PRAGUE

Dupre Writes of His Work

Following a long meeting of the student staff here we are moving forward very rapidly now. Wednesday night we had our second meeting with the group we met with last week in response to their request for a presentation of our program. On Thursday evening we staged a social evening for a group of students living in what was a prison. Two hundred and forty live there but many are still home for the vacation and we had practically all the rest—about a 100. We had an informal musical program of community singing, solos, then an explanation by me of what the student movement is, then some chocolate and cakes and finally the break up.

Those lads are as hungry as can be for many things. They are so physically hungry that they were all animals in going for the eats. Every one of them has been confined to his bed since the first of the year for some complaint or another. They have practically no social life and are as hungry as can be for that and for organization for some big definite purpose. We hope they will request us to meet with them every week, studying our program until such time when we will be ready to organize the student association. They were so grateful for our coming to them—a few American men and women, with a hint of cheer and co-operation. They followed us down and waved us away out of sight with hearts full. The trained nurse we have added to our staff tends those who need her, or sends them to sanatoriums or to the hospital. The Red Cross has just given us a large supply of medicine.

To Manage Mess

Wednesday next we take over the management of the Jugo-Slav mess and hope to increase the number eating there materially. Tuesday evening we are having a mass meeting of all those students. From that meeting we hope a smaller group will plan to meet with us week after week to study our program. These students live on 10 kronen or less a day. In American money that would be 17 cents now, though the kronen is worth more here.

There are 18 Roumanian students in the university. Only two of them are relatively poor. We are helping them. The rest are of fairly well to do parents. But the difficulty is that they cannot get money through and some haven't received their allowances since December last. We are planning to wire their money through for them through our association in Bucharest. Roumania has just demanded a student secretary and 40 others for the association there.

Yesterday we had an odd experience. Three embryo artists came in loaded with their paintings. Only two were on canvas, the rest on cardboard, because of the high cost of canvas. None of the boys were over 18. They are living a hand to mouth life, periodically kicked out of their shabby quarters. Two at least, have marked talent. We bought some of their things and are going to see the rest Monday. The same day brought in another lad, a Jugo-Slav, the palest and weakest I have ever seen. He had a note for some food which we gave him. He, too, is a painter and is going to bring in some of his work on Monday. They all try so hard and never complain. But don't think that they are all in this condition for they are not. And our program, while now partly of physical relief, will be the whole association program, for that is what they are hungriest for.

Summer Conferences Planned

Our present plans are to have a national constitutional convention here May 22 and 23, with 32 delegates present. Following that, each student center will organize locally, following some definite hints as to student organization that we hope to give them at the national convention, which will also be a training and an enthusiasm gathering. In June we will have our national student summer conference, in July send a delegate or two to the Holland summer conference as its guests, then in August a couple of delegates to the World Christian Student Federation conference at Stockholm, if we can move rapidly enough to gain admission by then.

Today we visited the place that is to be our summer conference grounds. It is an hour's ride from the city in a lovely village but entirely isolated. It is an old castle and grounds formerly belonging to the Austrian emperor. The original ruins date back to 930 and the present building to the Twelfth century. The castle is not at all ornate but well adapted to take care of a conference of 75. Beautiful grounds and orchards surround it and the natural beauty of the place will add greatly to the conference.

Tomorrow is an important day over here. Elections occur for the Lower House and the Sunday following for the Senate. There are 15 parties in some sections of the country. Three seem to be the most important; the National Democrats, the Agrarian party and the Socialist Democrats. The latter are for communism, the Agrarian party is opposed to that whole program and also to government control of prices, etc. The first named party seems to be a forward looking party with good motives of democratic government. There are also parties of the Jews, the Germans, the Catholics, etc. We are going to spend the morning going around visiting the polls with Dr. Tollman, the magazine writer, who is here for a few weeks.

The "Sokol", the world's most comprehensive and famous gymnastic organization, is having its national exhibition in June and July in a large stadium they are building here. This organization has only one paid director, but enrolls practically every boy and girl, and young man and woman in the country in its splendid physical training program. Large plans are also under way for representation at the Olympic games. The two Christian associations are putting on a demonstration play ground in the city and conducting a training school for that work which is eagerly being entered.

Railroad work of the association is also getting under way and one of the railroads is superintending the erection of the first building in a city in Slovakia. The people are very eager to have our work become permanent, gradually being led by their own leaders and financed by them.

The Student Opportunity

It is difficult to imagine the bigness of the student opportunity here. Our program of participation in service is appealing to them a lot. They are too prone to think with their feet off the ground too much of the time. They need to relate theory and philosophies to every day life. They want to, but don't know how to start. Vital Christianity has meant so little to them because of historical reasons. They are starting anew on their conceptions of the words "Christ" and "Christianity."

Our big opportunity is that we have the chance to help direct the thinking of a whole student generation in a new republic with the sort of emphasis, we feel students ought to have and which we outlined in the statement I sent you and which we are presenting everywhere. We can avoid so many mistakes of the student movement elsewhere if we will only think carefully and move slowly. We want to make their participation one of so much sanity and naturalness and real happiness and great desire to do the big things and the little things in life with the right motives and leading toward better things in the communities they will be going to as leaders.

But the big opportunity here is also yours back there. The students in America have changed completely during the war. They are a finer, more thoughtful lot, more ready to shoulder the big unfinished jobs of the war that they couldn't participate actively in. They see big unsolved social, industrial and international problems and they want to jump in and help make the right according to the principles of honor, fair play, justice and righteousness. Students in America want jobs to measure up to their imagination—and the jobs are there and here and everywhere, too.

And you lads, in your departments and the general work of the association, have just that big task of directing the thinking and action of students, shaping their ideals for life and work, for creating right habits of thought and doing, for keeping growing a campus atmosphere that is wholly Christian, for relating students to THEIR big task in the world. Hop to it with all the faith and love and humility there is in you and let's pull together—you there and we as your part over here until we all pull together again back there on the "foot-of-the-rainbow" campus.

All our prayers and hopes are with you in these policy-making days. And our affection comes, too, and it grows day by day, Yours,
HUNTLEY.

BUCKEYES STRONG IN DASHES, BIG SIX DOPE SHEET SHOWS

NOTE—This is the first of a series of articles discussing the relative merits of the teams which will contest for the Big Six championship.

Although many of the big stars of the 1919 Big Six will be back in the running in this year's meet, the final score should not be nearly as close as was the case then. Ohio State has gained tremendously in strength since last year and will be fighting for first place in every event and should come out an easy victor. The fight for second place will be what will hold the interest. With five places to be awarded this year instead of four, as in other meets, the scoring will be heavier.

In the 100-yard dash Ohio State seems to have the class of the field in Moorehead and Lock. This pair has led in the two meets so far this year, defeating King, who is the next best. Going on dope, then, the Buckeye pair should grab the two top places, but it is more probable that King will nose out one of them, giving first and third to Ohio State. Rogers of Miami looks good for a fourth place, with the last point rather in doubt. Hale of Case is the champion of his section of the state and will probably get the place, though McConnell of Reserve, Martin and Mayer of Oberlin and Pullen and Watson of Cincinnati are dangerous contenders.

The performance of Moorehead in the 220 last Saturday puts him in a class by himself in that event. No other sprinter can expect to come within three or four yards of him at the finish. Martin of Oberlin and King of Wesleyan, who have stepped the distance in close to :22 2-5, will fight it out for second place, with the Oberlin man the favorite. Smith, a Miami find, and Mayer, another Oberlin starter, are about the only other men who have shown much in this event. All of these runners can step the 220 in :23 or better, and with a straightway on which to run a new Big Six record may be hung up.

Whenever the quarter-mile is mentioned in Ohio these days the name of "Herb" West of Cincinnati is linked with it, for the Queen City star is in a class by himself in this distance and should win the race hands down. Brumbaugh of Wesleyan, Pittenger of Ohio State, McPhee of Oberlin and Davies of Wooster may be counted on to stage a pretty battle for the remaining places, with the dope saying that they will finish in about the order named. Pittenger's unexpected victory over McPhee stamps him as a promising runner, and if he continues to improve in form as he has done in the past week, he may finish even higher than third. McPhee has run the quarter in :52, though he was unable to beat "Pitt" in :52 3-5. Brumbaugh may run the half for Wesleyan or the mile, instead of the quarter, in which case King would probably replace him in this event. A. Martin of Oberlin and Measel of Miami may break into the scoring, but they will have to clip a couple of seconds off their best running time so far to do this.

Tabulating the points thus far would find Ohio State enjoying a comfortable lead with 16 points, followed by Ohio Wesleyan with 11. Oberlin would have 7, Cincinnati 5, Miami 4 and Wooster and Case 1 each.

AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY ISSUES BOOK BY DEAN VIVIAN

"Everyday Chemistry" is the title of a book by Dean Alfred Vivian of the College of Agriculture, which has just been issued by the American Book Company.

In a preface the author states: "The principal objection to a high-school course consisting entirely of inorganic chemistry lies in the fact that the 90 percent of the pupils who do not go to college and who pursue the subject no further, are left with a very faint conception of the intimate relation which chemical phenomena bear to daily life. Such pupils are therefore likely to think of chemical changes as occurring only in beakers and in test tubes. The reaction against the old type of high-school course in chemistry has resulted in the publication of a new type of textbook for secondary schools."

The volume was designed chiefly for use in the vocational courses in agriculture and home economics.

SOPHOMORES WILL PRACTICE

Alpha Rho Chi took the edge of the 8-to-7 score in its game with Delta Theta Phi. Snyder pitched for Delta Theta Phi and Badgley for Alpha Rho Chi.

Pi Kappa Alpha won from Phi Delta Theta 10 to 6. Westerman delivered good ball for Phi Delta Theta. Griffith delivered for Pi Kappa Alpha. Law lost to Vets 9 to 0.

FINANCIAL WARNING SOUNDED IN LETTER BY DR. FRANK M'VEY

"Stop, look and listen" should be put up over every door in the land, and it is the duty of the university men of America as leaders in thought and action to help faster it there, according to Frank McVey, president of the University of Kentucky. "In the face of the demand for high wages, more rents, larger prices and all the phenomena now familiar to the student," he says, "every citizen is demanding more in order that he may meet the cost of everyday living."

"Men have money, but the goods are not here in the quantity necessary for the needs of the world. Strikes are not likely to produce more goods and extravagance in their consumption will not bring them into existence. We must come to thrift, economy and hard work to restore the world to where it was. What is more disturbing is the lack of habits in the new generation for hard work and thrift."

The working machinery for carrying out the injunction of Dr. McVey is to be found in the savings societies organized broadcast by the savings division of the treasury department and the investment of savings in Government savings securities.

ENGINEER ON SALE WEDNESDAY

The Ohio State Engineer will go on sale Wednesday morning. By action of the engineering faculty, representatives will be permitted to enter classrooms in order to bring the magazine before the students, although no sales will be made then. This action favoring the Engineer has been taken because it is recognized as the mouthpiece of the engineering students and because there is no financial gain to anyone connected with it. Selling will be almost entirely in the hands of the girls in the department of architecture.

AMUSEMENTS

Colonial

So many people are familiar with the story of James Oliver Curwood's famous book, "The River's End," that it is hardly necessary to go into the plot to any great extent.

The action centers around John Keith, who is arrested for murder by a member of the Canadian Royal Mounted Police. The man by whom Keith is captured is fatally stricken and urges his prisoner, who is almost his double, to impersonate him and take the news back that Keith is dead. Only one person at the post recognizes the fugitive, and that is a Chinaman who threatens to betray him. Later the Chinaman is killed and he is safe for a time. When the dead officer's sister arrives, however, John makes a clean breast of his affairs and leaves. The story takes an unexpected turn at this point and Keith finds happiness at "The River's End." Lewis Stone plays the dual role in this production, and Marjorie Daw and Jane Novak are also members of the cast. The picture remains at the Colonial the entire week.

Southern

Manager Maddox of the Southern is quite happy to announce the bill for his playhouse for the week, because it has two film features that combine to make the bill one of unusual strength.

"Old Lady 31," with Emma Dunn, known as the greatest "mother" of the legitimate stage, and Henry Harmon, a veteran actor of Liebler and Frohman engagements, is one offering and Booth Tarkington's latest Goldwyn film success, "Edgar's Hamlet," is the other. It is the story of a "pin" admission show of the neighborhood in which all the kiddies join as actors or patrons, even to the little colored lad of the party who enacts the role of the "grave digger." It is a two-reeler of the series started by "Edgar and the Teacher's Pet," that was shown at this house several weeks since. Johnny Jones again has the part of Edgar.

Alhambra

Lionel Barrymore, who had the leading role in "The Copperhead," an Augustus Thomas play in which he appeared in Columbus recently on the stage, can be seen in the cinema production under the same name, which is being shown at the Alhambra Tuesday.

The play harks back to the days when "Honest Abe" Lincoln ruled the country. The role of Abraham Lincoln is portrayed by N. Schroell, who remarkably resembles the martyred president. Some 50 war veterans again become recruits and lived over the scenes, fights and different trials that they had gone through, when fighting under Lincoln's administration.

Wednesday and Thursday, Dorothy Dalton can be seen in, "Black Is White"; Friday and Saturday, Miriam Cooper in "Evangeline."

Knickerbocker

"Who's Your Servant?" the sensational picture which deals in a startling way with the question of the servant who betrays his master, is at the Knickerbocker the first half of this week. This film is one which deals without gloves with the themes of the American who shelters within his home a paid worker who not only steals his master's goods, but dares to try to steal the love of his daughter.

The picture is founded upon Julian Johnson's play which thrilled New York during its run at the Princess Theater. It tells the story of a high American official who nearly was sent upon the rocks by the underhanded and secret methods of an unprincipled servant, who used his intimate position in the official's home for the purpose of stealing information.

Larry Semon comedy, "The Fly Cop," is an added attraction on this program.
