Dear Beakman,
 What is the meaning of life? Are there instructions?

 Questions, name & address

Dear Jake,
 The meaning is up to you, and it may mean nothing at all.
 As for instructions, cut out today's stickers and tape them on your favorite appliance or on store windows and doors—after you get permission, OK?

P.S. from Jax: These are signs inspired by a TEDtalk (Ted.com) about designing happiness. It's because these warnings can make people smile.
