Vatican

The death of Pope Pius XI with "Peace" faintly breathed as his last hope for the world and the Church of which he was temporal and spiritual head brought forth expressions of sorrow from many prominent persons in private, religious and public life today. Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, the Papal Secretary of State, assumed active leadership of the Roman Catholic Church and convoked a world conclave of cardinals to elect a new pope.

Foundered?

Three vessels continued an almost hopeless search today for the British freighter Maria De Larrinaga and her crew of 37 men in mid-Atlantic after wreckage was found strewn over a three-mile area. The searching vessel Scamall radiated New York, "unable to locate Maria De Larrinaga or lifeboats. Certain she foundered. Further search futile due to poor visibility. Proceeding on voyage."

NATIONAL . . .

Maneuvers

The United States massed most of its navy today in the Caribbean Sea for naval maneuvers beginning Monday. It was the greatest concentration of American sea power in history. Significantly, the two other great world democracies—Great Britain and France—will engage in naval maneuvers at about the same time. The British fleet will be in the Mediterranean; the French navy will maneuver between Marseilles and North Africa.

Colds

President Roosevelt, suffering with a slight attack of gripe, was advised to remain in bed today by Dr. Ross T. McIntyre, White House physician. Mr. Roosevelt's temperature was 99.6—one degree of fever. Two members of the cabinet are also suffering from colds. Secretary of State Cordell Hull remained home in an attempt to recover from a cold while Postmaster General James A. Farley returned from New York with a cold, but was at his office.

Objectable

American Federation of Labor leaders approved today, in their convention at Miami, Fla., plans for a vigorous campaign to amend the Wagner Labor Relations Act. AFL President William Green found "objectionable," however, the amendments offered by Senator Edward R. Burke (D), Nebraska, bitter critic of the National Labor Relations Board which administers the Wagner Act.

STATE . . .

No Wives

By an approving vote of 91 to 24 the House of Representatives today sent the bill to prohibit husband and wife from holding state jobs to the Senate for further action. The bill is the pride of Representative Patrick Dunn, bachelor representative from Tuscarawas County, and is the object of intense dislike by the League of Women Voters.

Survey Deadline To Be Wednesday

Deadline for the return of Student Labor Board questionnaires on student labor conditions has been extended to Wednesday, Kenneth J. Rosen, Com-3, the board's chairman, said today.

Questionnaires will continue to be available in campus buildings until that date. The extension in time was due to a desire on the part of the Labor Board to get complete results from their survey, and to give all students who are employed in part-time work a better opportunity to secure the questionnaires, Rosen said.

Results of the survey will be used to determine whether an investigation of campus and University district labor conditions will be necessary.

Safety Patrol Organized

Cooperation of all University students has been requested by University High School officials in conducting their newly organized safety patrol in the University School district.

Mexico Neither Red nor Fascist Speaker Says

Dr. Bach Defends Mexican Government

Mexico is neither communist nor socialist, nor is it fascist, although it is accused of being all three, Dr. Frederic Bach, professor of economics at the National University of Mexico, told the audience in the first lecture of the University Town Meeting series at 8 p. m. Thursday in Commerce Auditorium.

Mexico's problems date back to the earliest days of the Spanish conquest, Bach, economic and treasury adviser to the Mexican government, pointed out.

Our country is different from the United States in two very vital points: a different kind of Indians and a different kind of Europeans," he said.

Civilized Indians

Mexico's Indians were civilized and agricultural at the time of the Spanish Conquest, not primitive and nomadic like the Indians farther north, he explained. Mexico's European conquerors did not come to the New World to build homes, to found a newer and freer country—they came to find gold, to become rich and to return home.

"In the last century Mexico has tried to build itself up, to reorganize its economic system, by inviting foreign capital. Bad distribution of land and bad distribution of population had put 70 per cent of the land in the hands of 2 per cent of the population. But foreign capital only made matters worse."

Passive Investments

Billions were drained out of the country, Bach said, by what he calls passive investments. Foreign capital did not help to build up a new,

Stork Leaves Two to Smiths

Two babies were born at University Hospital today. This fact is not uncommon. But the first child, a daughter weighing seven pounds six ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, and 35 minutes later a seven-pound-two-ounce son was born to another Mr. and Mrs. William Smith.

Mask Dance Has Dictator Theme

Scarlet Mask, men's dramatic association, will center the decorative scheme of their all-campus dance around dictators, Jack S. Younger, A-2, chairman of the dance, stated today. In line with that theme the Scarlet Mask orchestra will wear Nazi uniforms and caricatures of Dictators Hitler and Mussolini will adorn the walls.

Other features of the dance, which will be held in the Armory on March 3, will be a chorus of dancers taken directly from the Scarlet Mask spring production, "Cheer as You Go."

Albert M. Ankrom, Engr-4, director of "Cheer as You Go," announced that the following six students would be part of the cast: William C. Dager, Christopher W. Egler, Leon S. Friedman, George L. Packer, Robert W. Minor and Younger.

Council Will Begin Activities Survey

The Koda Council is starting a survey of Negro students attending the Ohio State University in order to determine the extent of Negro participation in campus activities.

The purpose of the Koda Council is to secure the recognition of the Negro in the University.

At this present time the council is reorganizing, with changes to be made in the constitution.

Hospital List

The following students are reported ill at University Hospital today: Sonia A. Lyman, Arthur J. Grundies, James Muckley, Betty Corkwell, Samuel A. Richey, Ronald H. Lynch, William C. Marsh, Richard H. McClosky, John Fagley, and Robert Knappenberger.

Law Dean Tells One on Himself

Dean Herschel W. Arant, College of Law, will be glad to take a seat on the bench of the Sixth U. S. District Court of Appeals when his appointment has been confirmed, he said today, because he fears he's turning into an absent-minded professor.

Dean Arant tells of telephoning his home while he and his wife were in Washington a few weeks ago. The call went through, but for the life of him, Dean Arant, though he recognized the voice, couldn't recall the name of the person who answered the call.

Turning to his wife, he asked, "Could you please tell me the name of our second born?"

The name was Frances, Dean Arant's 17-year-old daughter.

'Old Spain,' Swing At Newman Show

Nu-Vue Talent Performs Tonight in University Chapel; 13 to Compete

An atmosphere of "Old Spain" with a dash of modern swing and jitterbug antics will prevail when the Newman Club's Nu-Vue talent show opens tonight at 7:30 in University Hall Chapel.

If you are looking for the unique—and we do mean unique—in entertainment, this show should meet the requirements of the most critical.

For wacky dancing, and no other name could possibly fit this act, Tippy Brooks and Stanley Marx display the essence in unacceptable ballroom etiquette.

Betty Rhoads, acrobatic dancer, would put any self-respecting pretzel to shame with her body twisting act. And as if this wasn't enough she does a tap-dance with a "Susie-Q" finish.

To bring in an element of mystery, Reeder Hutchinson will again prove the hand is quicker than the eye with his magician act.

Rachel Crose, Spanish gypsy dancer, will supply the old world atmosphere, with the clicking of castanets and interpretive dancing.

Other acts of special note to be included in the show are: Alpha Phi Delta, musical revue; Vernon Scott Gilmore, juggler; Leo George, novelty songs.

Alpha Tau Omega, swing band; Buddy Erich and John Hartlein, duet in song; Patricia Harry, Hula dance with Hawaiian song.

Ed Thomson, singer of romantic ballads; Steve Lorry and Gerald Blue, electric guitars, and John Tomcik, Newman Club president, tap dancer.

Faculties of the Faculty Bent on 'Buckeye Belle'

Members of the University Faculty Club, more than 800 strong, will "walk the gangplank" tonight to their annual party.

The party-dinner, show and dance will have a showboat setting on the "Buckeye Belle," with boat terms prevailing from stem to stern.

At the dinner in the Faculty Club which will be served at 5:30 and 7:30 p. m., members will be eating in stateroom, midship, and port dining rooms, with food coming from the galley.

Each of the guests has received a baggage ticket listing as the destination "Faculty Funland" with stopovers at Bologna for dinner and Danzig for terpsichorean treats. The ship charter makes participants "subject to all rules and regulations governing fine food, fellowship, and frivolity."

Committee chairmen and their committees are: Emmett L. Brasseux, Com-4, general chairman; Alfred E. Lageman, Com-4, arrangements; Edward R. Heinzenman, Com-1, refreshments, and Clifford P. Morgan, Com-3, entertainment and publicity.

Stock Market Talk Heard by Engineers

At the meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers Thursday Samuel Anast, Engr-4, spoke on "The Stock Market and What It Means to the Engineer."

He explained the market's functions and the meaning of certain stock market terms and the necessity of an engineer having knowledge on the subject.

Proportional Representation Plan For Electing Senators Proposed

Lecture to Begin Student Aid Drive

Membership Funds Will Reconstruct Student Activity In Far East War Area

While a three member committee was soliciting support in the form of membership from other campus organizations, the Far Eastern Student Fund committee announced today that Dr. Francis Corderak, Ann Arbor, would deliver an illustrated lecture Tuesday night titled "Thunder Over China."

The lecture, which will be held at 8 p. m. in University Hall Chapel, will be the first step in a drive which will culminate in the collection of funds to aid students in the Far Eastern war area by transporting them to positions of safety, rebuilding universities and enabling students whose incomes have been cut off to continue studying.

Committee Elected

The committee, which is contacting the various campus organizations, was elected at a recent meeting. Members are Edward Likover, Grad, Maurice Greenfield, A-4, and Eleanor Burt, A-3. This group also will plan the next meeting of the Far Eastern Fund Committee which will be held at 5 p. m. Wednesday. At that time a permanent working organization will be set up.

Represented at the last meeting were the YMCA, YWCA, Peace Mobilization Committee, ASA, Chinese Student Club, Indiana Student Center, Avukah, IWA, WSGA and Women's Recreation Association.

Happiness Is Chief Marriage Interest

"What we are most interested in is happiness in marriage," said Dr. Francis Robinson, department of psychology, in an address on "Personal Adjustments in Marriage" delivered at the regular meeting of the Institute for Social Living in the blue lounge of Pomerene Hall Thursday.

"We normally think of love as if it were a bright idea," Dr. Robinson continued. "It is only human to dream of perfection in the one we imagine we will some day meet and love, but when the time comes and we actually do get married, we come to see each other's imperfections. Yet we can still be quite happy, if we are willing to become mutually adjusted," the speaker continued.

Drop a Nickle, Grab Your Gal And Swing It!

Basing their decorative theme on the novel idea of a huge imitation nickelodeon, members of Bucket and Dipper and Chimes have completed plans for the Junior Prom's decorations.

Will Osborne and his slide music will swing out from the loud speaker position in an imitation nickelodeon band shell. Indirect lighting running up and down the side will aid in giving the shell a realistic recorder look.

Programs in the form of large imitation five-cent pieces will greet the dancers; each program will have a few blank pages on which requests for songs may be written. In order to get requests played, programs should be inserted in the "nickel" slot of the bandshell.

In line with the modernistic setting will be a stylish circular bar with indirect lighting. Silver drapes, covered with notes and song titles, will screen the windows.

Ticket Prices

Tickets are now on sale at the Ohio Union at $3 per ticket. On February 22 the special sale for juniors only will stop and any student in the University will be permitted to buy the remaining ones. Gate prices will be $3.50 per ticket.

University to Back City Housing Ban

The Dean of Men's Office has not yet decided definitely what course of action will be followed if students living on the third floors of frame dwellings refuse to move when asked, Lowell A. Wrigley, director of men's housing, said today.

"Some action will be taken, however," he added. "Following the University's policy of backing up city rulings, we will not permit students to live in houses which do not have city rooming permits."

George Mattson, city building inspector, and Don C. Wiper, safety director, the two members of the committee appointed by Mayor Myron B. Gessaman to meet with the Columbus Rooming House Association, report that their committee has not met in several days.

Forum Club Opens Speakers' Bureau

Speakers for every occasion at a moment's notice is the aim of the Forum Club, speech group, through its Speech Bureau.

Any group that feels itself in need of a speaker need only contact this campus speech organization, and an orator will be shipped them at once, with no C.O.D. bill attached.

This plan has been adopted in an effort to give club members practical experience in speaking before groups. The club is endeavoring to make contacts with high school groups, Boy and Girl Scout clubs, and business organizations who occasionally need someone to address their meetings.

So, if you need an expert on politics, love, science or the price of Chinese jade, just call the Forum Club speakers' bureau. If it has not the expert you want, it will at the very least supply you with someone who can convince you that he's an expert.

And, after all, there isn't so much difference—

YWCA Heads to Stay In Office Until Spring

Present officers and cabinet members of the YWCA will serve until the end of spring quarter, instead of being replaced at the end of this quarter. This was decided at an executive council meeting of the YWCA, after it had been recommended by the evaluation committee of which Gladys Mason, A-4, is chairman.

The advantages offered for the adoption of this plan were centered on removing the spring quarter let-down and break-up in the organization.

EACH 650 STUDENTS ELECT DELEGATE

Election Would Be Based on Spring Enrollment; Opposition Feels That Unsavory Politics Would Be Issue

By GEORGE P. SATTLER
Student Senate Reporter

An amendment which would drastically reorganize the personnel of the Student Senate by setting up a system of electing Senators by proportional representation from the various colleges, instead of the present system of organization representation, was introduced into the Senate Thursday by Senator Tom J. McFadden, A-4.

Capital's Dean Tells of Czechs

They Are Trying to Imitate Americans, Tour In Europe Reveals

"The Czechs are trying to imitate the Americans," said Dean Justina Eich of Capital University before a joint meeting of Pi Lambda Theta and Phi Delta Kappa, Education honoraries, Thursday night.

Dean Eich has made an extensive tour through Central Europe recently checking the real feeling of the Europeans against the expressions of the American press.

Dean Eich stated that the Czechs were trying to imitate the Americans in clothes, business, institutions and government. "The Czechs feel as though they have been betrayed by their former allies," she said.

"I knew war might come, but I knew it would not come during the summer because the Europeans want to get the American tourists' money."

Orin B. Graff of Phi Delta Kappa expressed his joy in the fact that there are no subversive activities in the educational honorary fraternities.

Delta Chi Banquet Will Honor Grad

John B. Harshman '07, Delta Chi national president from 1929 to 1935, who has just completed 25 years of service in the fraternity, will be honored by a banquet following the district conference of the organization Saturday. Governor John W. Bricker '16 will speak at the banquet which will be held in the Deshler-Wallick Hotel.

Other speakers are O. K. Patten, executive secretary of the fraternity; Charles M. Thompson, dean of the Illinois Commerce School, and Osmer C. Ingalls '07. Judge Dana Reynolds '15, Common Pleas Court, will be toastmaster.

Attending the conference will be representatives from Miami, Penn State and the Universities of Florida, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois, as well as Ohio State.

The committee in charge of the conference and banquet are: Vernon Stouffer '29, chairman; Clair Shaffer '27, Robert Zucker '32, Thomas Evans, Com-4, and Bert Deibig, Com-4.

'Jallop Bill' May Outlaw Mechanical Methuselahs

No more will the old "jalopies" rattle down Fifteenth Avenue or amuse the campus with their gaudy decorations and "collegiate sayings" if a bill introduced in the state legislature Wednesday was adopted.

The bill, introduced by Senator Otto J. Bartunek, Cleveland, would prevent the registrar of motor vehicles or his deputies from issuing a license for any motor vehicle 10 years old or older, after April 1, 1941.

"Rattletraps" are usually owned and driven by financially irresponsible people who cannot pay damages, Bartunek explained.

Richard B. Spangler, A-1, owns a many colored Ford long past the 10-year mark. Sawed off shoulder-high,

* The amendment proposes that each college have one representative on the Student Senate for every 650 students registered in each college and that the spring quarter enrollment should be used as a basis for the division.

In case the remainder in the division is more than one-half of 650, the amendment provides that the college should be entitled to an additional representative, and if it is less than one-half the college should not be entitled to additional representation.

Advisers Limited
According to the proposed amendment, the Senate would be limited to two advisory members—the dean of men and the dean of women—who would not have the power to vote or to make and second motions.

Providing for election of Senators, the amendment stated that all representatives should be elected in general college elections and that the list system of proportional representation should be used. The election, the amendment read, should take place on the second Tuesday of May and the elected Senators should take their seats at the first meeting of the Senate in the following autumn quarter.

In support of the amendment as proposed by Senator McFadden, Senator William L. Coleman said:

"In the past the Senate had been represented by organizations and not by the students. The average student is more interested in his college than in the organizations he belongs to, therefore this amendment would not only give better representation, but a more democratic representation as well."

Bliss Objects
Senator Keith Bliss then pointed out that the election of Senators

Brown and Clermont Students Organize

The students of Brown and Clermont Counties organized a new club Thursday night at a meeting held in room 104, Derby Hall.

The officers elected at this meeting were: president, Arthur J. Davis, Ed-2; vice president, Merrill W. Rusher, A-3; secretary, Helen F. Parker, Ed-4, and treasurer, Carvil H. Smalley, A-1. A general discussion was held to develop plans for social affairs and for work to be done by this new campus group.

Oliver M. Rowley, A-2, and Willard Rinnert, Engr-2, have a 1926 "jalopy" that somehow takes them home to Marion every week end.

They definitely do not approve, they say, of the proposed bill.

The 1931 green coupe of Thomas B. Hobson, Com-1, will be 10 years old and therefore outlawed in 1941, if the bill passes.

But the pride of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity house, the 1913 black Ford of Walter E. Seamon, Ed-3, will never be effected by Senator Bartunek's bill. Alas, the car fell apart this year, Seamon says, after two years of rattling over the campus.

Toward Greater Democracy

Last night an amendment was introduced into the Student Senate which would make the Senate truly representative of the students of this University. The amendment, if adopted, would do three things:

1. It would deprive all organizations now represented on the Senate of their seats.

2. It would place Senate representation entirely on the basis of Colleges. Each of the University's 10 Colleges would be guaranteed at least one Senator. In Colleges having more than 550 students enrolled there would be one Senator for each 650 students in the College.

3. It would put election of Senators under a list system of proportional representation—a plan which political scientists agree is one of the most truly democratic methods of election which has been developed thus far in the history of democracy.

The proposed amendment grew out of a growing realization on the part of at least five senators that the Senate, as presently constituted is not the responsible, efficient, democratic body which the Senate should be.

We commend this important amendment to the attention of the entire student body and offer it our unconditional support.

Recognize the Congress

The Council on Student Affairs meets tomorrow to consider recognition of the Congress on Social Problems. We hope it decides to give the Congress the green light.

The Congress applied for recognition last week but its petition was not considered because it was scribbled and not in proper form. The next day an attempt was made to correct this impropriety, but consideration was again delayed because, according to Dean of Men Joseph A. Park, it was still believed that the petition wasn't in proper form.

We wonder whether this was the sole reason why consideration of the petition was delayed so long. One other reason, in our opinion, was that "University officials were afraid of the 'dynamite' inherent in the discussion of 'What Is Americanism?'" that the Congress had planned for last Wednesday night.

Ernest A. Grabel, chairman of the Americanism committee of the County Council of the American Legion, was to have headlined the discussion, but also on the program were two students, one of which was A. Lynn Altenbernd, president of the American Student Alliance.

Grabel's speech would have been perfectly safe, but some of the student speakers might have given definitions of Americanism either in their prepared speeches or from the floor that would have looked suspiciously like attacks on the definition of Americanism often proposed by patriotic and fraternal organizations. This would have been most unfortunate, for some patriotic and fraternal groups are very powerful, and see "Reds" under their beds at the least provocation.

The situation was very hurriedly patched up Tuesday with the announcement that Dr. McPherson, acting president, had granted the Congress special permission to use a campus building provided that only Mr. Grabel be permitted to speak.

Everything looked fine until Tuesday night. Then the steering committee of the Congress held a special meeting and decided to call the whole thing off. Students are famous for being impracticable idealists and these were no exception. They didn't want to be a party to prostituting the ideal of an open forum for the sake of expediency.

Now the Congress is back asking for recognition so that it can go on with its original plans to hold an open forum. We do not blame University officials for their attitude on the matter thus far, but we hope they see their way clear to recognize the Congress tomorrow. Being idealists ourselves, we can see no good reason why any one patriotic organization should be given a monopoly on defining "Americanism" or any other subject. Let's do the American way.

Highlights on Glittering Generalities

By Richard Taylor

College boys could have a lot of fun if they weren't taken too seriously. A few days after the famous "red investigation" was instituted, the Beta House found itself bedecked with a huge banner put up by the newly organized "Beta Bund." In large red letters across the front of the house, the sign proclaimed "Communists' Headquarters!" And on one side "Heil Yes!" and on the other "Heil No!"

But five minutes after the banner went up, the telephone began to jump up and down in frenzied protests, coming from all quarters. And down came the banner.

And the Scarlet Maskers are quaking in their respective boots, for the story of their spring show concerns a campus submerged in the throes of dictatorship.

At last we are getting an insight to the dirt that reportedly issues from the vicinity of Oxley Hall. They have dumped it all in a big pile in the middle of Neil Avenue.

Using the two major productions of Strollers this year, Vernon Davis has cooked up a clever publicity slogan in an attempt to hasten the payment of dues. It reads, "Don't sit on your DEAD END, pay your dues, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU!"

The average student goes home to do a little cramming for his mid-term, and the music major goes home to do a little jamming for his mid-term.

The University of Pennsylvania humor magazine, "Punch Bowl," celebrated its fortieth anniversary this month, and came out with a review of ancient jokes from years back. Just to prove that humor has made no progress in 40 years we offer a quip from 1899:

"Visitor—What is that rasping sound?"

Guide—Some student filing his schedule card."

And that reminds one of the story about the Wisconsin "Octopus." It seems they published a full page poem in 1923 called the "Kappa That's Known as Lou." In 1925 the Yale "Record" reprinted it giving credit to the "Octopus." The "Sundial" picked it up in 1928 crediting the Yale "Record," and in 1930 the California "Pelican" used the same poem giving a credit line to the "Sundial." The little ditty went the rounds for a few years more and in 1936, the "Octopus" discovered it, and printed it with profuse thanks to the Illinois Siren for letting them use their own poem!

Some enterprising freshman sold a gentleman from Mt. Union a Makio during Farmers' Week. And the ruralite appeared at the Makio office the next day waving his receipt and demanding his Makio. He was annoyed no end when he was told the book wouldn't be ready till spring. And that's being optimistic.

Camera Group Given Revised Constitution

A revised constitution was presented to Lens and Shutter, student photographic society, by its president, Dorothy A. McCormick, Com-2, at a meeting Thursday.

A novel scavenger hunt will be staged by the club at 6 p. m. Thursday. Each member will be assigned a picture and he must have the finished proof back by 10 o'clock. The pictures will then be judged and a prize given the winner.

300 Teams Entered in I-M Basketball
Race Keep Intramural Department
Busy Scheduling Largest League in Nation
Lantern Sports Editor

Random Bits from Here and There . . .

According to Leo G. Staley, director of intramural athletics, the 300 odd basketball teams competing in the I-M tournament this winter comprise the largest league of its kind in the country . . . The I-M department has been so handicapped by this large number of entries that it has been forced to schedule games on Friday night, a practice hitherto frowned upon . . . The chief complainants coming from the participating teams have been with the officiating, yet from an impartial viewpoint, it would be pretty difficult to find fairer and squarer officials than those in the pay of the I-M department this year . . . From some of the games I have seen, if the officials called as many fouls as there were offenses, many teams would be playing without players . . .

Cleveland's Arena, with a seating capacity of about 12,000 would be perfect as a field house for the Bucks . . . Everything from bike races to hockey games have been held there . . . Enlarge this Arena to about 20,000 seating capacity, and that is what the Buck field house will look like if the dream ever comes true . . . Officials in the Scarlet athletic department say it would be criminal to build a field house that couldn't accommodate at least 18,000 or more . . . The popularity of basketball in Columbus has jumped by leaps and bounds during the past few years as well as in the rest of the nation . . . Many fans stay at home for fear of not getting seats at the Coliseum, but this would not happen if a field house were erected here . . . When Indiana travels to Iowa this week end for a clash with the Hawkeyes, Captain Ben Stephens and company will be dangerous foes for the pace-setting Hoosiers . . . Stephens is a leading scorer and on his home court is likely to cause the Hoosiers a lot of grief.

Patnik, Clark to Yale Carnival . . .

Al Patnik and Earl Clark, the number one and two intercollegiate divers in the country, will dive in the Yale festival at New Haven, Conn., on February 28 . . . Captain Bob Johnson may also go along to swim against his brother Howie who is one of the brightest prospects in the country . . . Bob says he wouldn't rate a chance to beat his brother who is a freshman at Yale . . . Howie has already been clocked in 2:13 in the 220-yard free style, which is the best time for this distance so far this year . . . In the 100-yard free style, young Johnson has been timed in slightly over 52 seconds which is mighty fast time . . . Howie will compete in the National A.A.U. swimming championships here on March 31 and April 1 . . .

Henry Taylor, director of ticket sales, claims that close to 5000 fans will endeavor to get seats for the Michigan swim meet here February 18 . . . The Natatorium seats only 1500 and the others will be turned away . . . Incidentally, the Natatorium is one of the finest swimming buildings in the country . . . Only Yale's picturesque pool can beat the Buck facilities . . . Alex Schoenbaum received an excellent contract from the Brooklyn Dodgers' pro grid team, but he is undecided as yet about accepting or rejecting it . . . Carl Kaplanoff is also the property of the Dodgers and will probably take a whirl at the money game for a year anyway . . .

The second indoor track meet of the year here for the Bucks will be against Illinois Saturday night . . . The meet will start at 7:30 p. m. and there will be plenty of seats for spectators . . . Students will be admitted upon presentation of their athletic books . . .

Buck Swimmers to Face Undeclared Pitt Squad

When the Scarlet water boys face the natators of the University of Pittsburgh at 3 p. m. Saturday in Ohio Natatorium they will be facing a team which, so far this season, has a record of two wins and no defeats. This record to date is better than the Ohioan's.

Pittsburgh, although beaten decisively last spring vacation by a national collegiate bound Buckeye squad, rates high in swimming circles. At present they are eastern intercollegiate champions and though this doesn't mean they have beaten the strong Harvard or Princeton outfits, it does carry with it some swimming significance in their own conference.

Prepare for Wolves . . .

Coach Mike Peppe hasn't given much thought to a starting lineup, but the chances are that he will reverse the plan he used in some cases against Wayne last week end. In the Wayne meet several swimmers were entered in events which the Buckeye mentor knew to be less suitable for their efforts than others, but this week he will probably put men in the same positions, to a large extent, that he will for next Saturday's crucial return meet with Michigan.

Officials have already begun to doubt the capacity of the Natatorium for holding the overflow crowd expected for the Michigan meet here. Saturday's Pittsburgh fray may also be a packed affair with many Buck fans anxious to see a Panther team beaten by the Bucks.

DSD Cagers Whip Alpha Gams in I-M

The outstanding quint of the evening in I-M play Thursday night was Delta Sigma Delta, which at the present is leading in participation points for the University trophy. The Delta squelched Alpha Gamma, 28-3.

After a rocky start, the Deltas settled down to play a remarkable brand of ball that was featured by an impregnable zone defense that held the Alphas scoreless in the last half. Dillman and Rumbaugh were the spearheads in the fast functioning Delta attack.

The thrilling fray of the evening was the 24-22 victory of the Buckeye Club No. 2 over the Southeasterners. After being behind the entire game the Buckeyes, paced by Geiger, turned on the steam to win by the narrow margin. Geiger, a mite but mighty forward, corralled 18 of his team's 24 points.

The highest scoring game of the evening was the Rangers-Merkels tilt. Esko Sarkkinen looped the hoop for 13 points, but his efforts were to no avail as his team, the Merkels, dropped a bitter 30-26 decision to the Rangers.

Toledo Coach Challenges Cagers

In a radio interview over WTAM in Cleveland Thursday night, Coach Harold Anderson of Toledo University issued a challenge to the Buck basketball team for a game this season.

Anderson made the challenge when Tom Manning, interviewer, asked whether he would like to see his team tangle with the Scarlet. Anderson answered in the affirmative and said it in terms to indicate he had thrown down the gauntlet. The Bucks and Toledo met last season in a game the Rockets took 54-45.

Three Big Ten Games Carded For Saturday

Western Conference basketball teams will swing into the second half of their 1938-1939 campaign Saturday night with a brand new leader—Indiana—to fight off the threat of at least four other contenders for the championship.

Viewing each contest on the schedule separately:

ILLINOIS AT PURDUE—Considered championship material during the first half of the campaign, Illinois' chances suffered a severe setback last week when Captain Tom Nisbet was declared ineligible and forward Bill Hapac was confined to bed with influenza. Then another blow was added Wednesday when it was announced that Lou (Pick) Dehner, the team's leading scorer, had suffered an attack of tonsillitis. It is doubtful whether either Hapac or Dehner will be able to play against Purdue.

Purdue does not appear to have a particularly strong team this season, but will have the psychological advantage Saturday of playing on its home floor against a quintet drained of its major strength. This advantage should be sufficient to give the Boilermakers the decision.

INDIANA AT IOWA—The Hoosiers are in first place with a strong starting five and lots of reserve power. Iowa is ninth in the standings and only Captain Ben Stephens has shown any degree of greatness. Unless Stephens can pull the Hawkeyes out of the ranks of mediocrity by a brilliant demonstration of his own, Indiana should have no difficulty winning.

NORTHWESTERN AT CHICAGO—After a poor start, the Wildcats rapidly have been establishing themselves as one of the better teams in the Conference—not championship material, but strong enough to play an important part in deciding who will win the title. Chicago is Chicago—a poor team with a confusing zone defense which all but one of its six Conference opponents were able to solve during the first half of the title race.—M.S.

Buck Matmen Face Classy Illinois Team

They're after the Indians' scalp.

Coach Spike Mooney and his undefeated wrestling team will leave for foreign soil at noon Friday. They will meet Illinois' Indians in Champaign Saturday night.

The Illini, runners-up in the national tournament last season, will present a tough bunch of matmen. According to Spike, "We stand a 50-50 chance of winning the meet."

Ohio Has Edge . . .

If records count anything then Ohio State holds the edge this year. Illinois has four victories and one loss against the Bucks' three straight wins. Two of the Scarlet wins were against top-notch competition, while the Champaign boys lost to Kansas State, their only opponent of note.

The meet, here in Columbus last year was a thriller. Ohio State took four matches and Illinois five. But at that time Coach Kenney's grapplers had two intercollegiate champions on the squad. Both of those men are now graduated, which makes the Buckeyes slight favorites.

Probable lineups:

Ohio State	Weight	Illinois
Martin	121	Helman
Varney or		Petry
Beshara	128	Emmons
MacIntyre	136	Deutschman
Montonaro	145	Boyd
Meyer	155	Leverich
Peltier (C)	165
Mindlin or		Brennan
Griffith	175	Sikich
Downes	Heavy

Scarlet Tracksters See Easy Victory Over Visiting Illini

By DON SMITH

A weak but highly hopeful band of Illinois trackmen will provide the opposition for Track Coach Larry Snyder's cinder squad Saturday night at 7:30 at the Exposition Hall as the Buckeyes will be after their second consecutive victory of the indoor season.

Since the fans went ga-ga over the meet with Penn State two weeks ago Coach Snyder expects the 4000 seats to be filled near capacity.

Leading the Illini will be Captain Bob Diefenthaler, high jumping star, who placed fourth in the Big Ten outdoor meet last year and was a member of the Western Conference team that met the stars of the Pacific Coast Conference at Chicago in their annual meet. Diefenthaler has been jumping around 5 feet 5 inches consistently.

Returning Veterans . . .

The sprinkling of veterans returned from last year's squad gives

Coach Leo Johnson some encouragement that the Illini may give the Bucks a little trouble. Bob Ashley, in the dashes; Wayne Yorchio, in the mile- and two-mile runs and Burt Downs in the quarter-mile are the letter winners that will make the Bucks sweat.

Downs, who did 47.8 seconds in the 440-yard dash last year, will give the Bucks' co-captain and Big Ten champ, Harley Howells, plenty to worry about before the evening is over.

May Break Records . . .

Coach Snyder figures that at least five meet records are in danger. Following is a list of the indoor records of Illinois-Ohio State dual meets:

One-mile run—Tom Sexton, Ohio, 4:23.8, in 1937.
60-yard dash—Bob Grieve, Illinois, 6.1, in 1937.
440-yard dash—Harley Howells, Ohio, 50.0, in 1938.
High hurdles—Dan Cullinan, Illinois, 68.8, in 1937.
High jump—Dave Albritton, Ohio, 6 feet 7 inches, in 1937.
Shot put—George Gragg, Illinois, 46 feet 11 1/2 inches, in 1938.
Half-mile—Bill Bloor, Ohio, 1:56.9, in 1931.
Low hurdles—Jack Keller, 0.82, in 1931.
Two-mile run—O'Connell, Illinois, 9:44.6, in 1936.
Pole vault—McDermont, Illinois, 13 feet, in 1931.
Mile relay—Ohio (Salzman, Knight, Robinson, Howells), 3:22.7, in 1938.
The records in danger are the mile, high hurdles, quarter-mile, half-mile and two-mile runs.

Williams Named Football Manager

Announcement was made today of the appointment of D. Wilbur Williams as senior football manager for the 1939 season. The appointment was made by the University athletic board.

At the same time the three junior managers were named. They are Vernon Zieske, Paul Kluga and Richard Kuhn. One of these three will be senior manager during the 1940 season.

Phi Kappa Taus Plan Very "Hearty" Party

Sigma Nu, Alpha Zeta, Delta Tau Delta, Zeta Tau Alpha, Outing Club Plan Affairs

By MARTHA ANN HINKLE
Society Editor

We're always happy about people who don't overlook occasions like Valentine's Day, so today we point with pride to the Phi Kappa Taus. They will decorate the first floor of their house with all types of valentines for their "Heart to Heart" dance Saturday night, with a visit from the postman scheduled to distribute appropriate messages for all. Even the good old game of Post Office will be played "for a limited time!"

Sigma Nu Formal

The Sigma Nu boys will hold their winter formal tonight at their spacious house, with Chuck Muhlback in charge of it all. Jimmie Franck and his orchestra will provide the music.

AZ Dinner Dance

The Alpha Zetas will be having a dinner dance Saturday night at the Hall of Mirrors of the Deshler-Wallack Hotel, our friend George Deubach tells us. Ernie McKay and his orchestra will play for the 7 to 12 affair, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Baker (no, not the one you're thinking of) and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Predmore have been asked to chaperon.

Delt Note

We received such a gem of a note Thursday that we are going to use it VERBATIM so you all may enjoy it. "Hold your breath, Hinkle, the Deltas are in again: Friday evening the Delta Tau Deltas will have more darn fun because they are going to have a banquet. This gargantuan event will honor the brethren who hold positions in the state government or took part in last fall's history-making political campaign. They include: Earl Griffiths, the Secretary of State of Ohio. Thomas Herbert, the attorney-general of Ohio. Carl V. Weyand, Chief Justice of Supreme Court. E. N. Dietrich, Director of Education, state of Ohio. George Whitehead, director of pub., Repub. state committee. Ed Schorr, chairman, Republican state committee. E. E. Addison, representative to legislature, Franklin co. And a number of others. The banquet will be at the Delta Shelter, the active and alumni chapters co-operating. You can breathe now. In case you want to know who writes these cheery little bits of sunshine my name is Dietrich." There, wasn't that SWEET?

Zeta News

If the Zeta Tau Alphas don't stop doing things we're just going to turn over the column to them. They will entertain rushes Saturday, at which a waffle supper with plenty of log cabin syrup will honor the memory of "Honest Abe." Marion Herold, Dorothy Marling, Jane Good and Bette Lowman are planning the party. Then, on Sunday night, the house girls will hold a Sweetheart Dinner, a tradition with the chapter. Decorations and entertainment will, of course, be suggestive of Valentine's Day.

Outing Club

The Outing Club will mark Valentine's Day with a party featuring a taffy pull and cable games in the Field House from 7:30 to 9:30 tonight. Mary Lou Eaton, who is in charge, says the party is open to all women on the campus, with a slight cover charge of five cents.

Panhell Dinner

The Freshman Panhellenic representatives and their alternates were hostesses to the Senior Panhellenic at their annual dinner Thursday evening at the Maramor. Dean of Women Esther Allen Gaw and Mrs. Grace Parker Weiss, assistant dean, were among the other guests.

Phi Mu Delta Guests

The Phi Mu Deltas will be entertaining their national president, Mr. Ernest Tonkile, Saturday through Monday. Members of the Ohio Northern chapter will also be guests of the chapter this week end. Looks like fun. (And thank you, whoever you are, for that lovely tribute. We don't think you were apple-polishing at all.)

Dean Park Speaks

Dean of Men Joseph A. Park addressed the Youngstown Mothers' Club Thursday evening. The occasion was a dinner meeting of the group to which the Youngstown fathers were invited.

AAUW Luncheon

The Columbus branch of the AAUW will have a "Get-Acquainted Luncheon" Saturday noon at the University Club, at which Dean Herschel W. Arent will give the principal talk. Mrs. Milo Kimball is arranging the program, and Mrs. George Florence will preside.

Which brings us to the end of another week. Just watch for us... we'll be looking for you.

Plan to Remodel Senate Proposed

might prove dangerous. "Elections," he said, "have a rather unsavory reputation on the Ohio State campus, and there is the great possibility that many abuses might creep into the system of electing Senators."

He also said that it was inevitable that party politics would enter into the elections and bring with it all its evils and, in his opinion, that was not furthering the democratic principle, but hindering it.

Senator Coleman conceded that there was a possibility that party politics would enter into the elections, but he also hastened to tell the Senate that electing the Senators from the colleges would tend to minimize the activities of the various campus combines.

Minorities Safe

"In addition, the list system of proportional representation, he said, "would make it possible for minorities to always be represented in the Senate and control by one party impossible."

Under the Senate constitution no voting can take place until after the third reading of an amendment, and it is expected that the amendment will receive much attention during the next two sessions of the Senate, before actual voting takes place.

It was learned by the LANTERN that the amendment was drafted by Senators Harry E. Sondles, McFadden, Vincent Facciuto, Coleman and Carl E. Fischer, who have been working on the document for several weeks.

Hears Report

In addition, the Senate: HEARD a report submitted by Student Senate Secretary Dean W. Palmer on the activities of the Committee on Questionnaire Distribution. Palmer assigned various Senators to the task of distributing the questionnaires on extra-curricular activities of students to members of the Senate.

HEARD a report on Finance Committee Activities by Senator Palmer, who said that $25 had been asked to pay expenses for follow-up work of the Religion-in-Life Committee. The committee instructed the secretary to write Rev. Williams and Miss Polly Moss in order to more definitely determine the need of a grant of money.

A PROPOSED AMENDMENT to give the Ways and Means Committee the right to consider all requests to the Senate for funds was advanced to second reading.

Play Date to Mark 164th Anniversary

Exactly 164 years after its premiere, the "Barber of Seville" will be presented on the campus by the French Club. The first performance of the play was held in 1775 at the Comedie-Francaise in Paris. The latest performance will be at 7:30 in University Hall Chapel on February 23.

The club originally scheduled the play for February 24, but, according to Dr. Theodore R. Bowie, department of Romance languages, "the club did not want to interfere with the Junior Prom," and so changed the date. Dr. Bowie is directing and acting in the play.

Charles E. Carlot of the department of Romance languages, is the only genuine Frenchman in the play. He has been in the United States only since last fall. Shirley A. Tice, A-4, is the only girl in the play.

Forum Club to Hear Judge C. J. Randall

Judge C. J. Randall of the Franklin County Court of Appeals will be the principal speaker at the traditional Lincoln's Day banquet of the Forum Club Sunday.

The program, to be held at the Village Restaurant at 6:30 Sunday evening, was announced today by Martha Q. Lee, Com-4, president of the group.

Association. Dr. Fry believes optometrists may become either proficient in the medical care of the eye or remain in the field of refraction, or examination with prisms and spheres.

Rich, Colored Ice Cream Best

The results of a survey, as announced by Professor Robert B. Stoltz, department of dairy technology, to a meeting of visiting dairymen in Townshend Hall Thursday, were that people prefer the colored to the plain, and the rich to the less-rich types of ice cream.

In the survey, conducted recently to determine what types of ice cream people prefer, Tower Club members and workers in the various University departments, consumed 1400 gallons of ice cream.

Staters to Hold Parties

Two more "prospect parties" to acquaint high school athletes with University life have been planned for February 18 and March 4 by Ohio Staters, Inc. These two parties will be the last ones of the quarter and 20 boys will be invited each time, according to Keith Bliss, Com-4, president of the organization.

Freshmen Drop Constitution Plans

Plans for the framing of a new Freshman Activities constitution were discontinued today due to the fact that the office is under the jurisdiction of the Ohio Union, according to Fred H. Schwartz, A-1, chairman of the constitution committee. Instead, special by-laws will be added to the Ohio Union constitution and these will become the written backbone of the organization, subject to popular acceptance.
