Service offices cut

The Office of Assessment and Evaluation has been dis-
ruling by Richard H. Armitage, vice president for student services.
The action completed Armitage's reorganization plan which went into effect July 1.

Armitage explained the changes as "effective delivery of a broad range of services for students."

Previous changes made under the plan included the elimination of three positions, the combining of seven offices to form an Office of Student Group Development and the designation of two offices as independents, reporting directly to Armitage.

The Counseling and Consultation Center has assumed responsibility for a number of the offices' duties, but no provisions have been made for an assessment unit, said Mary Beth Snyder, administrative assistant.

Karen J. Thomann, former coordinator of assessment and evaluation, will return to the University of Massachusetts.

Commenting on other disposed officeholders, Snyder said Charles H. Williams, former assistant vice president for student services, is working for the government; Barbara Watts, former coordinator of Women's Prog-rars, will enter law school at the University of Cincinnati; and Kathleen E. McCarthy, former coordinator of Student Group Development, will continue graduate studies at Ohio State.
