2005-2006 UNIVERSITY-WIDE AWARDS

The Alumni Award for Distinguished Teaching recognizes a maximum of 10 faculty for outstanding teaching. Students, faculty, and alumni may nominate candidates, and a committee of faculty, students, and alumni chooses recipients. Faculty may receive the award only once, and recipients are recognized with a $3,000 honorarium made possible by gifts from alumni, friends of the University, and the Office of Academic Affairs. In addition, the Office of Academic Affairs awards an increase of $1,200 to each recipient's base salary.

The Distinguished Diversity Enhancement Award honors up to five individuals (faculty, staff, students, alumni), offices, departments or organizations that have developed and implemented programs, policies and/or procedures that have demonstrated a significant commitment to enhance diversity at Ohio State. The University Senate's Committee on Diversity, in cooperation with the Office of Human Resources, awards recipients $1,200.

The Distinguished Scholar Award recognizes a maximum of six faculty members for outstanding scholarly achievements. Each recipient is awarded a $20,000 research grant for the pursuit of further scholarly activity and a $3,000 honorarium from the Office of Research. Criteria were provided to department chairs and deans in a memorandum dated June 30 from Robert T. McGrath, Senior Vice President for Research.

The Distinguished Staff Award recognizes 12 staff members, who have had at least five years of continuous service, for exceptional accomplishments, leadership and service to the university community by significantly improving or enhancing the quality of work/life in ways that make a substantial difference for their colleagues; contributing to outstanding and sustained improvements in customer services; and developing creative solutions to problems that result in significantly more effective and efficient university operations. The Office of Human Resources awards honorees a $1,500 cash award and a $700 increase to their base salary.

The Distinguished University Professor title is annually awarded to no more than three exceptional faculty who have been at Ohio State for at least five years. The permanent title recognizes a balance of excellence in research, scholarly or creative work, teaching, and service that are both distinguished and distinctive. The Office of Academic Affairs awards honored faculty an annual budget of $10,000 for a period of three years to support their academic work. Honorees are expected to continue a regular program of teaching, research, scholarly or creative work, and service.

The Faculty Award for Distinguished University Service is awarded to a maximum of three faculty who have made extensive contributions (other than in formal administrative roles) to the development and implementation of university policies and programs that have made documentable impact on the quality of the University. Recipients will have served in leadership roles on university-level committees or in similar capacities while continuing effective teaching and an active program of research, scholarship or creative work. The Office of Academic Affairs presents recipients with a $3,000 cash award and a $1,200 increase to their base salary.

The University Distinguished Lecture Series Program annually recognizes two senior faculty members for their outstanding academic achievement, particularly, but not exclusively, in research, scholarship, or creative activity. Each recipient presents a scholarly lecture, open to the university community and to the public, followed by a reception. The Office of Academic Affairs provides a $5,000 award for the lecturer to designate to an academic program or project of her or his choice.
