

TM.MAC.M1

Caniff - Misc.

A Photocopies of clippings on Steve Canyon

"Martial, Martial: 2 Cares Has Steve." The Virginia Pilot, 8 March 1968, p 31

"H-E Cartoonist Caniff Here for TV Show." Los Angeles Herald Examiner, 21 Nov 1967

"Caniff Talks of Comics: Public Wants More Action, Less Plot." The Ledger-Star, 7 March 1968

"Cartoon Creator to Speak." The Virginia Pilot, 21 Feb 1968

"Tip for Whiskers." Time, 20 July 1959

"Caniff by Caniff: The Editors Were Listening." Newsweek, 24 April 1950

B Caniff Fan Correspondence

C Caniff Publicity

Photocopies of news clippings and photographs of Caniff visiting soldiers in the Lackland AFB Hospital

"New Honorary Nat'l. Commander Named." Arnold Air Letter, Nov 1967, vol 19, no 1

"For a Sweetheart." Virginia Pilot, 8 March 1968

D Air Force Recruitment

"Comics Crusade: Funny-Paper Spokesmen Help Air Force, Navy Seek Funds and Recruits; Services Offer Artists Information and Ideas." The Wall Street Journal, 4 Aug 1960

E Bitsy Beekman and Poteet Canyon Materials

Photocopies of proofs depicting Bitsy Beekman and Poteet Canyon

Typed and handwritten narrations of the adventures of Bitsy Beekman and Poteet Canyon

Magazine articles on Bitsy and Poteet

- F Linda Morrow as Bitsy Beekman
News clippings and photocopies of photographs concerning the use of Morrow as model for the Steve Canyon character Bitsy Beekman
- "Linda's a True-to-Life Comic Strip Character."
Akron Beacon Journal, Feb 1968
- G Prints of characters from Steve Canyon for distribution to fans
- Prints (14x11) depicting Steve Canyon, Herself Muldoon, Happy Easter, Madame Lynx, Savannah Gay, Miss Mizzou, Reed Kimberly, Holly Hall, Feeta-Feeta, Poteet, and other unnamed characters
- Odd sized prints depicting Steve Canyon
- H Steve Canyon Licensing Materials
- News release (10 June 1958) announcing new licensing and merchandising program in connection with Steve Canyon TV series
- Official merchandise licensees of Steve Canyon products (toys and books) listed by official licensing representative
- I Steve Canyon Airager Materials (1958)
- Proofs of Airager logos and insignia
- J Lowell Toy Co. Prints
- Promotional prints of Madame Lynx (5 March 1959) distributed by the Lowell Toy Co.
- K Steve Canyon Merchandising
- Proofs of the logo of the Steve Canyon Official Merchandise Licensee

News release announcing a licensing and merchandising program in connection with the Steve Canyon TV series

List of Steve Canyon products (toys and books) listed by the official licensing representative

Chesterfield/Steve Canyon advertisement

Steve Canyon wrist watch advertisement

Promotional piece distributed by Toni Mendez to potential sellers of Steve Canyon products

Reprint of two articles featuring Steve Canyon toys and games

"Steve Canyon, Macy's Salute WAF Today." New York Mirror, 24 June 1959

"Macy Marks 10th WAF Anniversary." New York Mirror, 23 June 1959

L NORAD (North American Air Defense Command)

Steve Canyon comic strip reprint designed to promote support of the installation of the U.S. planned Ballistic Missile Early Warning Sites (BMEWS) in Yorkshire, England in 1960

Steve Canyon comic strip reprint designed to promote the Outstanding Airman Program of the United States Air Force. Caniff used Chief Master Sergeant Robert Morris of the Grand Forks (North Dakota) NORAD Sector as a model from February to April 1962

M Steve Canyon Promotional Materials

Leaflets promoting the Steve Canyon comic strip, including reprinted letters from Air Force officers and government officials praising the strip

Materials supplied by King Features Syndicate to newspapers to promote storyline, "Steve Canyon: Missileman"

Steve Canyon promotion kit from Grosset & Dunlap

N Steve Canyon TV Series

Leaflet promoting the TV series includes an article:

"Steve Canyon Going From Funnies to Film on N.B.C. - TV." The New York Times, 25 May 1958

Positive and negative silver print proofs promoting new TV series

Chesterfield cigarettes advertisement promoting the TV series

14x11 Black and white photo of Dean Fredericks as Lt. Col. Steve Canyon in the TV series

O Caniff Articles (Photocopies)

"On Caniff and More." Editor & Publisher, 21 May 1988

"What a Comic Strip That Was!" The Milwaukee Journal, 25 March 1988

"Flying in the Funnies." Comics Buyer's Guide, 2 Jan 1987

"Le Retour Du Pape American Remet Les BD: Coup." Salon D'Angouleme, 30 Jan 1987

P Storyline Promotions From King Features

Several proposed story outlines for Steve Canyon strip by Caniff as part of a promotional package

Q Caniff Articles and Posters

"H-E Cartoonist Caniff Here for TV Show." Herald Examiner, 21 Nov 1967

"Dumas From Ohio." Newsweek, 24 April 1950

"The Art of Milton Caniff." Pageant, May 1953, vol 8, no 11, p 142

(2) Promotional posters for Steve Canyon Polo shirts by Caniff

"Tip for Whiskers." Time, 20 July 1959. Steve Canyon parallels U.S. - Soviet tensions

Kraar, Louis. "Comics Crusade: Funny-Paper
Spokesmen Help Air Force, Navy Seek Funds and Recruits; Services Offer Artist Information and Ideas." The Wall Street Journal, 4 Aug 1960

Various promotional sheets revealing the Pentagon's admiration for Milton Caniff

Astor, David. "Five Decades of Cartooning."
Editor & Publisher, 7 April 1984

"Steve Canyon's Creator Compares His Work to Therapy." Green Bay Press-Gazette, 26 April 1987

R Miss Lace

Caniff, Milton. Male Call, The First Complete Collection of the Uninhibited Adventures of Every GI's Dream Girl - Miss Lace. Copy of Male Call book featuring Miss Lace character

S Parts I & II Caniff - Eulogies, Memorials, Etc.

Several letters of condolence to the Caniff family and to Toni Mendez

Various copies of articles on the life of Caniff, various obituaries

Noted prose to be used, possibly, in a eulogy

Several copies of prepared eulogies

Get well letter from President Ronald Reagan

Audio tape recording of Caniff memorial services

Copies of a special comic strip plate signed by several cartoonists

T Caniff - Obituaries

Various clippings concerning Caniff's death

Letters of Condolence

U Caniff - Memorial Services

Eulogies

V Caniff - Miscellaneous

Numerous clippings concerning Caniff

Copied set of rough strips with only the captions filled in Various brochures on Tudor City. The Caniffs considered moving to Tudor City, New York

Miscellaneous personal correspondence

Annual Scouters' Appreciation Dinner. Caniff received an award

Salary contracts [1934]

Holiday note illustrated by Caniff

Poster for National Newspaper Week by Caniff

7x9 color photo of Caniff and his wife, Bunny (1940?)

Steve Canyon tearsheet (French) 8/29/47

Male Call (comic strip) reproduction 1943

Tearsheet of Judge Parker by Harold LeDoux
5/9/76

W Caniff - Booklets, Brochures

Steve Canyon: Poteet Canyon Press Aside at the

New York World's Fair by Milton Caniff

"New York City Police Force." Cover by Caniff

"Why High School?" Cover by Caniff

Chinese Student Far Eastern Magazine, May 1940, vol 3, no 5. Cover by Caniff

The Asia Magazine. Possibly some of the pictures served Caniff

Steve Canyon booklet: An Incident With Charlie
Vanilla or Charlie Vanilla Licks Again by Caniff

"New York City Whose." Advertisement illustrated by Caniff

Taylor, Maj. Jim. "The World of Milton Caniff."
Airman, Feb 1970

Various Air Force insignia or advertisement designs by Caniff

Manuscript for article: "Detour Guide for an Arm Chair Marco Polo." For Quill Magazine by Caniff

X Caniff - O.S.U. News

O.S.U. news release (12/9/78) concerning the new Milton Caniff collection at the Ohio State University

Y Interview Transcript

Transcript from an interview of Caniff done by Poplaski, 21 Oct 1983

Z Male Call

Clippings

AA Terry and the Pirates

Clippings

AB Caniff prints

"Sketches of Old and New London" 1/21/62

"Steve Canyon's Women" 6/6/60

"Escapes From the Pen"

"What to Do in an Air Raid" 12/16/41

AC Caniff Greeting Cards

AD Manuscript: Steve Canyon and Princess Snowflower