

Sub-Category	Item	Box	Location	Description	Family Items
--------------	------	-----	----------	-------------	--------------

Category 7: Family Items

Family	387	36	01-7-32-04-06-0-1	Book of matches from the Glenn Plumbing Company, New Concord, Ohio, circa 1950s.
	417	71	01-8-04-01-07-9-1	Trumpet, with case, played by John Glenn during his boyhood in New Concord, Ohio, 1930s.
	674	70	01-8-33-19-08-0-1	Blue star window flag hung to denote the active military service of John H. Glenn, Sr. during World War I, 1917-1918.
	761	82	01-7-36-07-07-0-1	Lionel Corporation "Train Master" Toy Transformer, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	762			Eighteen piece set of plastic railroad trestles for a Lionel model train, Lionel catalog no. 110, with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	763			Twenty-four tie channels for a Lionel train set, catalog no. 110-25, with original packaging, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	764			Set of eight cattle figures for Lionel train sets, Lionel catalog no. 3656, with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	765			Lionel Trains hopper car (black, "Lehigh Valley"), catalog no. 6456, with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	766	83	01-7-38-10-08-0-1	Lionel Trains diesel locomotive (black, no. 2032), with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	767			Lionel Trains diesel locomotive (black, "Erie"), with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	768			Lionel Trains tank car, catalog no. 6465 (silver, "Sunoco"), with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	769			Lionel Trains caboose, catalog no. 6357 (red, "SP"), with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	770			Lionel Trains operating cattle car, catalog no. 3656 (orange, "Lionel Lines"), with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	771			Lionel Trains stock car, catalog no. 6656 (yellow, "Lionel Lines"), with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)

Sub-Category	Item	Box	Location	Description	Family Items
Family	772	84	01-8-36-04-07-0-1	Lionel Corporation Multi Control Transformer, catalog no. 1033, with original box, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	773			Lionel Trains Remote Control "O" Gauge Switch, catalog no. 22; collection contains three switches - two right-hand and one left-hand, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	774	85	01-7-33-19-08-0-1	Lionel Corporation train track, straight section; collection contains 33 pieces - thirty-two 10.5 inch and one 9.5 inch, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	775			Lionel Corporation train track, curved section; collection contains 34 pieces - thirty-two 12 inch and two 11 inch, 1930s. (from John Glenn's childhood train set)
	776	999	0	"Flexible Flyer" sled used by John Glenn during his childhood in New Concord, Ohio, circa 1920s-1930s.
	777			Wooden yardstick with advertisement for the "Zanesville Monument Company - E.B. Castor, General Mgr. - Phone 250," circa 1920s.
	778			Cast iron bell from the Castor family farm, circa 1920s.
	1200	119	01-8-37-19-08-0-1	Pair of metal strap-on ice skates used by John Glenn during his childhood in New Concord, Ohio, circa 1920s-1930s.
	1201	116	01-8-39-08-06-0-1	Child's cape, black with red lining, made for John Glenn by his mother, Clara Glenn for use in a children's chorus, circa 1926-1927.
	1222	124	01-8-37-03-06-0-1	U.S. Army helmet worn by John H. Glenn, Sr. during World War I, 1917-1918.
	1223			Pair of khaki colored canvas leggings worn by John H. Glenn, Sr. during World War I, 1917-1918.
	1224			Metal U.S. Army mess kit used by John H. Glenn, Sr. during World War I, 1917-1918.
	1225			Pair of U.S. Army metal spurs with leather straps worn by John H. Glenn, Sr. during World War I, 1917-1918.
	1227			Signal flare pistol used by John H. Glenn, Sr. during World War I, 1917-1918.
	1228			Stiff leather kit box engraved "Verdun - France - 4 Dec 1918" brought back from France by John H. Glenn, Sr. after World War I.

Sub-Category	Item	Box	Location	Description	Family Items
Family	1259	132	01-8-18-02-07-0-1	Camouflage painted metal U.S. Army helmet, marked "37" worn by Walter B. Alley during World War I, 1918. (Alley was an uncle of Annie Glenn)
	1260			Pair of khaki colored canvas leggings worn by Walter B. Alley during World War I, marked "Truck Co. No. 3 Motor Section 112th Ammunition Train 37th Div," 1918. (Alley was an uncle of Annie Glenn)
	1261			U.S. Army issue canvas and leather kit bag used by Walter B. Alley during World War I, marked in pen with the various locations Alley traveled to in England and France during 1918. (Alley was an uncle of Annie Glenn)
	1262	119	01-8-37-19-08-0-1	U.S. Army issue gun cleaning kit used by John H. Glenn, Sr. during World War I, 1917-1918.
	1658	162	01-8-07-16-07-9-1	Stuffed koala bear presented to Lyn Glenn by the Lord-Mayor of Perth, Australia during the New York City celebration of John Glenn's Friendship 7 space flight, March 1-2, 1962.
	1659			Rag doll of a Chinese girl in a blue cloth suit, rattan sandals, and conical hat, given to Lyn Glenn by John Glenn upon his return from a duty assignment in China, 1946-1947.
	1711	168	01-7-06-25-08-5-1	Pair of small metal identification tags worn by John H. Glenn, Sr. during his military service in World War I, 1918.
	1717	164	01-8-32-19-03-0-1	Intricately inlaid wooden music box from Switzerland bought by John Glenn for his mother Clara during his NASA goodwill trip to Europe in 1965.
	1881	174	01-7-25-02-07-0-1	Metal license plate sign for the Glenn Chevrolet dealership in New Concord, Ohio owned by John H. Glenn, Sr., circa 1930s.
	1924	0		Wooden end table built by John Glenn during a high school shop class, circa 1937.
	1925	0		Tan throw pillow with fringe and crocheted flowers, made by Clara Sproat Glenn and used on the living room couch at John Glenn's boyhood home, circa 1930s - 1960s.
	1926	0		Wood and tan wicker child's rocking chair given to John Glenn by his mother, Clara Sproat Glenn in 1922 (chair seat damaged).

Sub-Category	Item	Box	Location	Description	Family Items
Family	1927	0		Wooden framed mantel clock made by the Ansonia Clock Company of Ansonia, Connecticut, used in John Glenn's boyhood home, circa 1920s - 1960s.
	1928	0		Silk and cloth circular cake-topper, with bride and groom figurines, used on John and Annie Glenn's wedding cake, April 6, 1943.
	1929	0		Brown and black painted plaster casting of an owl sitting on a tree branch, made by John Glenn during a school shop class, circa 1935.
	1930	0		Stained and painted wooden etching of a cartoon dog labeled "Hot Dog" made by John Glenn during a 7th grade shop class, 1934.
	1931	0		Copper plate bias relief etching of a sailing ship, mounted on a wooden plaque, made by John Glenn during a 9th grade shop class, 1935.
	1932	0		National Geographic globe of the Earth, dated 1961, with red tape denoting the routes of the three orbits made by John Glenn during his Friendship 7 spaceflight in 1962, given to his parents after the mission.
	1933	176	01-8-36-07-01-0-1	Brass bugle, made by the C.G. Conn Company of Elkhart, Indiana, carried by John H. Glenn, Sr. during his military service in World War I, 1918.
	1968	999	01-7-35-21-03-3-1	Framed and matted embroidery of the George Bernard Shaw quote, "Some men see things as they are and say, why...," made for John Glenn by his daughter Lyn, circa 1970s.
	1969		01-7-35-22-06-3-1	Framed and matted embroidery of the Ralph Waldo Emerson quote, "If there is any period one would desire to be born in, is it not the age of Revolution...," made for John Glenn by his daughter Lyn, circa 1970s.	