John M. Bennett

CANTAR DEL HUFF

John M. Bennett

POEMS

In English

Con una Traducción al Español por el Autor

Prologues by

Jon Cone

Ivan Argüelles

Illustrations by Larry Shineman

still I slat beside you persistent's beauty in the face of pages torn and my unclouded headache like a storm

...y todavía me he tablillado a tu lado / la belleza de lo persis tente en la cara de las / páginas rasgadas y mi jaqueca sin nubes / como una tormenta

from A NON

“There isn’t any way to approach Bennett, if what you expect from a poem is conditioned by all those gurgling Norton Antologies of the last two thousand years. ...what does Bennett mean and just where precisely should he be placed in the book shelf in my study? Well, the question is unanswerable... We therefore suggest an insistent ignorance. and simply point to such monumental poems as Bennett’s Huff: Here Bennett attacks “the thumbed blank pages”, then proceeds to “the asshole’s spigot” dragging behind the “muttered damp luggage” of language. Thus we see art before creation, arising out of the void...”
- Jon Cone

“It has been poet Bennett’s task to explore with a maddening sense of detail and obsessive recurrence this aspect of the human condition, its puzzling exasperating and irritating swarm of imagery simmering just below the brain’s conscious ‘ego’, stammering buttends with the unconscious Id’s Dionysian forays into song and debauchery.” - Ivan Argüelles
