suzan sari - dentrit örgüsü

suzan writes:

In the attachment there is a work inspired by the text I translated into Turkish, 'dentrit plait'

"the homogenization of experience is a strategy designed to train our dendrites to a trellis." steve dalachinsky & jim leftwich

construed here

still leaves
traces
true con struct where()
fraught trace of truce ovule the seagulls dive scavengers one-all
eating the same
seed concede fault admit that it is like turning doves to pigeons all lies commit loot here scene as fade to b
l
a
c
k
except within lines lies mined are kept as wind breathes thru
the house.

i found myself still raining

i found myself
still raining at dawn
photos in many books
all showed this here i was crossing the street beneath the arches
perspective nearly gone
when i found myself
more endurance
than failure
seemed to keep me dry
tho
before the sirens hit my ears & before it seemed there were no panes left untouched or under ash & guts
i spat a noisy aria out into the street caught myself bathing in geometry filling like a well of well intentioned lies marginally
found myself
grainy ore
blank suds
raining at dawn

links caught golden rays bursting into my heart
then i awoke
new sun through wet leaves.
