2019 Ohio State Farmers Market

1. Home
2. Faculty and Staff
3. Buckeye Wellness
4. Buckeye Wellness Programs
5. 2019 Ohio State Farmer's Market

Enjoy the sunshine and buy fresh, seasonal and locally grown foods at our farmers markets. You'll also receive tips on healthy eating and learn about wellness services offered by Ohio State.

Ackerman Road Farmers Market

When: August 23, 2019

Where: 660 Ackerman Rd. (behind the building)

Time: 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. (or while supplies last)

Medical Center Farmers Market

When: September 13, 2019

Where: Rhodes Plaza at the Wexner Medical Center (the plaza is located between Ross Heart Hospital and Rhodes Hall)

Time: 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. (or while supplies last)

2019 Vendors
Support local and stop by our booths at the farmers market. We'll also have information about wellness services available to Ohio State faculty and staff at the university and medical center.

- Food for purchase from Nutrition Services including: famous grilled corn on the cob and veggie burgers (cash, credit or payroll deduction accepted)*
- Fresh local produce from Yellowbird Foodshed
- Buckeye Wellness
- Faculty & Staff Fitness Program
- Gabbe Health & Wellness Initiative
- The James Mobile Education Kitchen with healthy cooking demos every half hour starting at 11 p.m.
- Office of Student Life - Recreation and Physical Activity Center*
- The Ohio State University Franklin County Extension Office*
- The Ohio State University Health Science Library
- Ohio State Center for Wellness and Prevention
- Ohio State Integrative Medicine
- OSU Health Plan

*Only available at the September 13th farmers market.

These events are brought to you by Buckeye Wellness, Nutrition Services at the Wexner Medical Center and the Gabbe Health & Wellness Initiative.