RE: Greek Award Winners

Enclosed you will find several documents culled from my personal files.

- Complete list of the members of Archons honorary from its founding in 1967-68 through 1985. [Update and indicate when affiliation with Order of Omega began.]

- Complete list of Ross-Gainer Award winners from the inception of the award in 1948 through 1985. Note that the award was given to only one man until 1971. It is unclear which of the finalists was actually the winner in 1966-1970

- Complete list of Conaway-CHASE Award winners from the first award in 1965 through 1985

- Complete list of Outstanding Sorority Pledge Award winners from 1962 through 1985. It is unclear when this award originated.

- List of Outstanding Fraternity Pledge Award from 1978 through 1985

- Complete list of the Alumni Service Award winners from the inception of the award in 1978 through 1985

I am sending a set to Raimund Goerler in the University Archives so that a record is kept. I suggest that you update this list from 1986 to the present and send the updated lists to Rai as well as to the Greek Alumni group and to me. I hope you find this useful information.

c: Raimund Goerler
ARCHONS: Organizational History

In May 1967, several officers of the Council of Fraternity Presidents went to the IFC Adviser with the idea of organizing an honorary that would recognize those students in the fraternity system who had given all of their extracurricular efforts towards chapter and/or system activities. There was a strong feeling that a number of men, deserving of recognition, were being "passed over" in the competition for class honoraries. The goal was to recognize and encourage chapter level leadership and provide for a corps of individuals with interfraternity concerns, contacts, and influence.

Bill Harlor, Delta Chi, CFP President in 1966-67 was the key man in organizing Archons. He and Steve Stover, Phi Kappa Tau, CFC Executive Committee, spent the time launching the group. The first class was tapped in Spring Quarter 1968. Archons was a CFP project, so only men were involved from 1968 through 1972. In 1972-73 it was decided to officially combine the men and women into this honorary. This was done at the April 1973 Greek Honors Banquet.

The Ross-Gainer Award has been given since 1948 to honor the senior fraternity men who have contributed significantly to their fraternity chapter, the fraternity system, and the university. The award is named to honor Mylin H. Ross, Dean of Men Emeritus. The winner is a "gainer" in leadership ability and experience. Through scholarship, service and example the winners have exemplified the ideals of fraternity life. The selection committee interviewed the finalists and named five winners. Remember to hold your applause until all are introduced.

CONAWAY-CHASE AWARD

History:

The Chase Award has been given since 1965 and it is an acronym for its criteria: contribution to sorority, honor, achievement in the Panhellenic system, scholarship, and excellence in contribution to the University. The name of Christine Y. Conaway, Dean of Women Emeritus, was added in 1967 in recognition of her service to sororities. Only one recipient was named each year until 1968 when it was decided that up to five winners may be given.

Item of Recognition:

A large rotating trophy, with a replica to the recipient, was given until 1968. Plaques were given until 1976 when a silver tray, engraved with the award name, was given to each winner.

Eligibility/Selection

Senior sorority women are eligible for nomination by the chapters. Each may nominate no more than two members. Selection criteria and selection committee requirements are in the Women's Panhellenic Association Constitution and By Laws.
Recipients:

1965 - Barbara Oliver, Pi Beta Phi

1966 - Kathryn L. Feltz, Kappa Kappa Gamma
