Although Each apartment is slightly different, this floor plan should help you visualize what the Buckeye Village Faculty Housing looks like.

Making the Buckeye Village Faculty Housing your temporary home is more than just good value. Look at it this way. You can pay $1085/month for a budget motel before taxes, or you can pay $1200/month for a corporate apartment. Both are fine choices, until you add in daily parking (University ramps are $7.50/day) and that's when you can actually find a space. If you choose the motel, you'll have to eat out three meals a day, and that gets expensive. Not to mention Housekeeping banging on your door at 8 o'clock when you're trying to finish that proposal.

Wait a minute 795/month sounds expensive for a campus apartment.

Why torture yourself for $795/month you can have it all: convenience, comfort, and a cost-effective rate. While everyone else is stuck in traffic, you'll be within walking distance of every building on campus. You'll be living in a home specifically designed to meet your needs as an Ohio State guest.

Think about it. Do you really want to drag all those pots and pans down here? Wouldn't you rather just pack your bags, stop by the grocery store for a few basics, and move right in?

We thought so. Please call us. We're anxious to show you...
Buckeye Village Faculty Housing

Welcome...

to our fully furnished one bedroom apartments.

Short term leases available.

University owned and operated.

No Place to house your departments guests?

The Ohio State University has the Solution.

The Ohio State University is a diverse community located in a major metropolitan area. Just north of downtown Columbus, the university neighborhood offers many restaurants (including several critics' favorites). The Wexner Center for the Arts, shops where you can buy anything from a toothbrush to hand-crafted shoes, and Larkins Hall, one of the country’s largest recreational and sports complexes.

Buckeye Village Faculty Housing opened in 1993. The apartments have been home to visiting scholars, administrators, artists, and professors from throughout the world.

The apartments are located at the Buckeye Village Apartments 2546, 2552, 2554 Muskingum.

Please Call Us.
We'd love to show you one of our apartments.

614.292.6561
Fax 688.3087
Internet
rankin.61@osu.edu
No place to house your department's faculty guest's?

The Ohio State University Has a Solution.

Please Call Us.
614.292.6561
fax 688.3087
rankin.61@osu.edu

The Ohio State University is a diverse community located in a major metropolitan area. Just north of downtown Columbus, the university neighborhood offers many restaurants (including several critics' favorites), The Wexner Center for the Arts, shops where you can buy anything from a toothbrush to hand-crafted shoes, and Larkins Hall, one of the country's largest recreational and sports complexes.

Visiting Faculty Quarters opened in 1993. The apartments have been home to visiting scholars, administrators, artists, and professors from throughout the world.

The apartments are located at 115 and 133 West Lane Avenue between Neil Avenue and High Street.

Welcome to our fully furnished one bedroom apartments.
Short term leases available.
University owned and operated.
Making the Visiting Faculty Quarters your temporary home is more than just good value. Look at it this way. You can pay $1085/month for a budget motel (before taxes). Of you can pay $1200/month for a corporate apartment. Both are fine choices, until you add in daily parking (University ramps are $7.50/day) and that's when you can actually find a space. If you choose the motel, you'll have to eat out three meals a day, and that gets expensive. Not to mention Housekeeping barking on your door at 8 o'clock when you're trying to finish that proposal.

Wait a minute. 900.00 sounds expensive for a campus apartment.

Why torture yourself for 900.00/month you can have it all: convenience comfort, and a cost effective rate. While everyone else is stuck in traffic, you'll be within walking distance of every building on central campus. You'll be living in a home specifically designed to meet your needs as an Ohio State guest.

Think about it. Do you really want to drag all those pots and pans down there? Wouldn't you rather just pack your suitcase, stop by the grocery store for a few basics, and move right in?

We thought so. Please call us. We're anxious to show you your new home.

Although each apartment is slightly different, this floor plan should help you visualize the Visiting Faculty Quarters.

Located on West Lane Avenue between High Street and Neil Avenue, The Ohio State University's Visiting Faculty Quarters feature completely renovated one bedroom units. Each professionally decorated apartment has full-size appliances, including microwave oven and cable television as well as comfortable and attractive furnishings. For your comfort, the apartments are air conditioned.

Designed with the visiting or new professor, administrator, artist, or Eminent Scholar in mind, the apartments have all cookware, linens, local telephone service, and even a decorative fireplace. Parking and laundry facilities are on site.

Visiting Faculty Quarters apartments are rented only to University departments for their guests. Rent (as of July 1, 1998) is 900.00 (and may increase each July thereafter).

Two persons may live in each apartment. Pets are not permitted, but assistance animals are welcome.

Parking is available for one car per apartment at no extra charge. (A special permit is required).

To see and reserve an apartment, have your sponsoring department call Buckeye Village 292-6561. Our Visiting Faculty Housing Manager will select an apartment for you.

Don't worry about arriving mid-quarter; we can start your lease any day of the year, except weekends and University holidays. Your department will be billed monthly for your rent.

Facility Housing
The Ohio State University
Buckeye Village
2661 Defiance Drive
Columbus, OH 43210