Contact with Grenada

Listening from the stadium, OSU Radio Club members Larry Leasko, a senior from Mentor, left, and Rob Peebles, a freshman from Portsmouth, monitor by ham radio the events in Grenada Tuesday night through Wednesday morning. Until Wednesday, ham radio was the only means of communication between the United States and American medical students confined at St. George University.