Historical Jewish Press (JPress) of the NLI & TAU

Historical Jewish Press (JPress) of the NLI & TAU

23.06.1927, page 2

In the face of the Chemical Warfare Services in Germany and Austria, the question arises of the possible conversion of their chemical factories into explosives factories.

The Chemical Warfare Services in Germany and Austria, which have been converted into explosives factories, are under the control of the Ministry of War. The question of the possible conversion of these factories into explosives factories is of great importance.

The possibility of converting these factories into explosives factories is a matter of great importance.

The Chemical Warfare Services in Germany and Austria, which have been converted into explosives factories, are under the control of the Ministry of War. The question of the possible conversion of these factories into explosives factories is of great importance.

The possibility of converting these factories into explosives factories is a matter of great importance.

The Chemical Warfare Services in Germany and Austria, which have been converted into explosives factories, are under the control of the Ministry of War. The question of the possible conversion of these factories into explosives factories is of great importance.

The possibility of converting these factories into explosives factories is a matter of great importance.