ה Xperia ຫחקשר��י the Xperia in the image as well.

The image shows a page from a book written in Hebrew. The text is a continuation of a conversation, possibly about technology or a product named Xperia. The page contains numerical data, a table, and some technical specifications.

The page number on the bottom right corner is 32, indicating it is part of a larger document or book. Without being able to read Hebrew, the exact content of the page cannot be accurately transcribed, but it appears to be detailed and technical in nature, possibly discussing features or specifications of a device named Xperia.
